The First Wave of The New Children

Qala Sri'ama Phoenix

Blessings from the One Heart...

I bless each of you and offer this divine understanding of the new children of Earth as a gift from my heart to yours. May it assist you to acknowledge the love that is held within your heart and the amazing gifts these new souls bring to Earth. May each of you who have children or grandchildren receive from God directly, the true nature of each child that you have been gifted, and be open to receiving an understanding of their needs so you may support them to ground their energy, and be received with love by every being on Earth, for the gift they are. May each of these children live in safety, with a blanket of love and support, and may each be honoured and respected as our future guardians and as those who are here to create the New Earth.

In this article I offer a description of eleven of the pods (soul families) of these new souls and their gifts and needs. The pod is like a group energy body for souls to travel to Earth in and be held in during their incarnations here. These first eleven pods are energetically connected to 11 archangelic color rays. I offer the following eleven rays to assist you, and as you read about each pod of the new children, a chalice of these rays will be poured forth through you. Beloved ones, know that each of these rays anchors one of these groups of new children and that one of your own children, or a child you know, may be connected to one of these pods. The New Children are all beings under the age of 22 years of age. Some of these children are the psychic or indigo children. Within this article I share with you about children with unique qualities and gifts.

Beloveds, presently there are 77 pods of new children who have birthed or are presently being birthed. These soul pods began their birthing process after the harmonic convergence when a doorway was opened to allow mass birthings of new souls to take place. New souls are souls who have not been on Earth previously or those who have only been on the sacred planet for very short times previously. The following information relates to the first eleven pods of new souls within the 77 streams of new souls that are birthing on Earth or have birthed in the last 22 years.

- The first I wish to describe to you is the White Archangelic Ray that births the Crystal Children. This chalice begins to pour forth through you, and purifies and opens you to the pure white light of the Godhead that lives within you. Breathe as you receive this ray, supporting you to open to your God Presence more deeply. Breathe as the Angels and Archangels pour this through your being, and intend with your breath to fill yourself fully. As you overflow with this, send this out to all the Crystal Children on Earth and those birthing to Earth. The Crystal Children come to Earth to connect all beings to the Godhead directly and to purify, birth, renew and regenerate the Earth. These ones come from far away realms beyond the stars that you see in the heavens above you. These ones come from realms of geometry, and it is geometry that is a doorway for each of them to truly meet themselves. Each one of these Crystal Children holds the power within them to realign all to its original sacred geometry or divine blueprint. These ones at times, can be emotionally imbalanced when their environment is not holding the vibration of sacred space around them. These ones truly need sacred space to be on the Earth. They are telepaths and communicators through the inner planes and through their feeling body, and without sacred space they tend to take on the emotions and thoughts of all the beings around them. This creates their soul to wish to not fully be on the Earth. The White Archangelic Ray is the ray that assists them and also assists you to hold the connection to the Godhead within. Breathe deeply now and receive this and fill yourself, and then send this to all the Crystal Children on the Earth and to those coming to Earth. This will create a connection between you and them and also assist them to open to who they are on the Earth.

- The second ray I wish to share about is the Aquamarine Archangelic Ray, which births the Dolphin Children. This ray supports all beings to co-create an atmosphere and group consciousness of the highest potential for all beings. This ray supports all beings to reconnect to their soul family and to place their energy in group projects and co-creations. This ray also supports the higher mind and telepathy to awaken within a being. Breathe as you receive this ray, supporting you to open to your soul family and group creation in a sacred way. Breathe as the Angels and Archangels pour this through your being, and intend with your breath to fill yourself fully. As you overflow with this, send this out to all the Dolphin Children on Earth and those birthing to Earth. These children hold the energy of new organisation through play, fun and group connection. They hold the ability to assist all to open to new forms of organization and management of energies that are light and joyful and flow with ease and grace. These ones do not naturally place their energy into anything that does not flow with ease and grace, for this is their natural way. If they are placed in an environment and taught to struggle, these children rebel and often find new places to go to, away from the struggling energies. It is not in their true nature to struggle or to attune to struggle in any form. These children need environments without struggle and battle, and if their environment is filled with struggle and battle, they tend to isolate themselves and disconnect from all others in their environment. This ray will support them to align and heal any disconnection from their own natural flow of energy, and it will support all other souls to also align to the path of grace and ease in life. They hold the gift of surrender for all of humanity.
- The third ray I wish to share about is the Rainbow Archangelic Ray, which births the Rainbow Children. The Rainbow Ray of the Archangels supports all beings on Earth to open their consciousness to the divine within and the power that one holds within as a God Presence being, or a divine being on Earth. Breathe as you receive this ray, supporting you to open to your power and divinity in a sacred way. Each of the Rainbow Children have wonderful gifts to be able to embrace all beings as one and to see all beings through God's eyes. These children have the role to assist all others to also see themselves as a divine aspect of All That Is, and to see themselves through God's eyes. As you receive this through a chalice pouring forth through you, support your soul to see yourself as divine and receive this divine elixir. Breathe and fill yourself with this until it overflows, and then send it out to all the Rainbow Children on Earth, and to those that are birthing presently. This will support them to feel supported by those on Earth. These children have not embodied through the Earth body previously, and need great assistance to learn how to be in a physical body. It is important that they are recognised and given the support that they need, for without physical support in their lives, they shut down to their gifts and who they are, and stop seeing through God's eyes. In these circumstances, they tend to see through their parents' eyes or through the eyes of the closest person to them, and they lose connection to their true nature if this occurs. This ray has the power to realign them, and may just be asked for as a divine elixir.

- The fourth ray I wish to share about is the Peach Archangelic Ray, which births the Alcyone Children. This ray assists all beings to meet God's truth that is held within them, and to align to the truth of their God Presence. The Alcyone Children come through the portal of Alcyone of the Pleiades, birthing through this ray to arrive on Earth. Breathe as you receive this ray, supporting you to open to your divine truth in a sacred way. Breathe as the Angels and Archangels pour this through your being, and intend with your breath to fill yourself fully. As you overflow with this, send this out to all the Alcyone Children on Earth and those birthing to Earth. These children are divine record keepers that have a wonderful ability to know truth about others on a soul level, and to know what is the highest potential for that being. These ones often carry great wisdom and appear to have simple answers for adults in relationship to knowing God's truth about a being, or about parts of a being's life. This ray also assists the children to live their truth, for if their environment does not support them and recognise them (if they are unrecognised), they tend to withdraw within themselves and feel great aloneness and then they are unable to share their gifts. This ray brings these souls back into alignment powerfully. These children need their environment to hold truth, and for all beings they connect to, to be honest and speak their truth around them, and if this does not occur, these children will withdraw into themselves.
- The fifth ray I wish to share about is the Golden Archangelic Ray, which births the Golden Children. This ray activates the Christ consciousness in all. These children come from realms beyond all the suns, including the Great Central Sun, and birth through all the suns to Earth. These children are the keepers of Christ consciousness and have a natural ability to emanate Christ consciousness and the three qualities of the Christ, which are unconditional love, forgiveness and transmutation. This ray brings these qualities and activates the Christ consciousness within all beings. As you breathe now, you will receive a pouring forth of this elixir and ray to allow the Christ consciousness within you to open more deeply. As you do this, fill yourself through every chakra and body and send out this elixir to all the Golden Children on the Earth, and those coming to the Earth. These ones sometimes have difficulty when their environment does not support them to be who they are. When these children are in environments holding old energies such as clutter or very old items in the home (pertaining to old memories), and the beings sharing the home have difficulty letting go of the old ... they experience the need to break down the environment and often will create breakages and other changes to force the change. Otherwise, they will tend to shut down and withdraw and go into another world and not live in the world, and disconnect from their parents. This ray can assist this realignment and if the ray is brought through the house, it can create a new fresh energy. It is very important for these children to have no clutter around them, just as it is very important for all adults to hold their Christ consciousness, to have no clutter around them also.

- The sixth ray I wish to share about is the Silver Archangelic Ray, which births the Lunar Children. This ray supports all beings to be open to the divine journey through the unknown. As you breathe now, the archangels bring forth to you this ray in a golden chalice filled with silver essence and begin now to fill you with this. Breathe to receive this and allow it to overflow through you, allowing you to open to the unknown through the open heart. Breathe and fill thyself now and then send this out to all the Lunar Children on Earth and those coming to Earth. These ones who are on Earth and are returning to Earth, come to support all beings to open to the unknown and the divine mystery of life. These ones have great faith and carry their energy easily with no plan through their mind. These ones are very guided through an active intelligence that is one with their intuitive mind. These ones are often very creative, and without a creative flow in their life or a creative environment, they have no direction for their energy and tend to feel incredibly frustrated and sometimes angry over little things in life. It is very important for them to have a creative environment that enables them to work with no plan and just with free flow. If this is not present, this soul tends to have too much internal fire and nowhere to direct it, so they 'explode' emotionally and mentally rather than express themselves creatively. The Silver Archangelic Ray can support them to birth more easily and anchor them through a creative environment.
- The seventh ray I wish to share about is the Diamond Archangelic Ray, which births the Diamond Children. This ray assists all beings to open themselves to the One Heart through a clear connection to the Divine Father's energy. This ray assists all souls to open themselves to the divine masculine and to all men. These children are here for the men, and to support all souls to be able to embrace the men on Earth and the male energy within all. Each one of them holds the truth of the masculine within and their own divine masculine is already, on many levels, aligned as one with their Godhead. These divine children bring playful energies to the male and bring a new male energy to Earth – one of clarity, organisation and playfulness. Breathe as you now receive this divine elixir, as a chalice of this elixir is poured forth through you allowing your own male energies to align more deeply to the Godhead within you. As you breathe, intend to fill yourself completely with this, rejuvenating your male energy. Many beings come to support you as you fill and begin to send out this elixir to all the Diamond Children on the Earth and all those ones coming through to birth. As they receive this, they feel supported to be who they are on the Earth. These children need to have an environment that allows them to express the Divine Father's energy and be supported by their parents and environment in a way to nurture this inner wisdom.
- The eighth ray I wish to share about is the Emerald Archangelic Ray, which births the Emerald Children. This ray supports all souls to embrace and receive the Divine Mother's energy more fully. This ray co-creates one's heavenly self to anchor more deeply through one's Earth body. This ray supports the openness to new birthings and the completion of old cycles in one's life. Breathe as you receive this, filling your being deeply as the Archangels and Angels bring chalices of this elixir to you. Breathe and receive this and let it flow through you, allowing the alchemical alignment to assist you to complete all old cycles and open to the new. The Emerald Children also support you and all other beings on the Earth to enter new cycles and complete old cycles. They hold the love within them naturally to allow others to be themselves and to recognise the cycles of life. These ones are ancient wisdom keepers of the cycles of life, and if their environment is not supported to cyclically change with the seasons and through their own age cycles, they tend to move out of their own cycle. It is important for these ones to receive an environment that is changing with their own age and with the seasons, for without this, they tend to experience a little craziness. It is like a whirlwind that comes through their being and they lose their ability to be able to communicate fully, and they tend to do little crazy things that make no sense. It is a part of them trying to balance the energies and get the cycles moving again. Send your love and this ray to them by letting it overflow through you, and pour it forth out to them wherever they are in the world, and out to the portals that birth these ones coming through to Earth.

- The ninth ray I wish to share about is the Pearlescent Archangelic Ray, which births the Pearl Children. This ray brings the softness, innocence and pure heart to open a being. This ray is filled with Angelic whispers and soft nurturing touches. This ray assists all beings that are ultra sensitive to feel nurtured. Breathe as you receive this through your being and intend to fill yourself as the elixir pours forth to you now, and allow the most sensitive parts of yourself to be nurtured now. Breathe in and receive now a filling of this elixir through your being. As you fill yourself, allow it to expand out and send this intentionally to the Pearl Children on Earth and those who are coming through to Earth. These children are ultra sensitive and are deeply affected by the psychic plane of Earth. Their role is to bring the love and the safety to the psychic plane of the Earth. They are telepaths and have extraordinary abilities of connection to others on the Earth. Their environment needs to be very safe and without this safety, they experience disconnection to the love and when this occurs, they hear all the thoughts of all the beings on the Earth. This tends to make them unable to focus and be still, and it creates hyperactivity. If they are not in a safe place, they will often leave their body a little as it is too difficult to be in the body fully. This ray will bring them into their body and assist them to purify the thoughts and to open their heart connection again. This can only occur if they are in a safe environment where safety is a priority. These ones as children, often assist souls having difficulty in the psychic plane of Earth and are like guides to them. This ray will assist them deeply to be who they are, and may be called for at any time to assist them.
- The tenth ray I wish to share about is the Pink Archangelic Ray, which births the Pink Children. This ray supports all beings to experience self-love as well as unconditional love for others, and births the love cocoon around a soul's embodiment. If this love cocoon is broken in any way through their birthing experience, or through trauma through their childhood, by working with this ray you may heal this cocoon. If this cocoon is not whole, it is virtually almost impossible for a soul to experience self-love and unconditional love simultaneously. The Pink Children have a very strong love cocoon and are born with this, and it is very difficult to break this. If they are unsupported through their environment and do not receive what they need, these children tend to be very smothering of others and very protective of those around them, and the natural flow of unconditional love becomes protective love. If these children grow and do not receive an environment that is loving and supportive, they tend to focus on what the problems are around them, and put all their energy into protecting these energies from any disturbances. They naturally flow with love towards all, and without this flow around them, they overcompensate and smother all. As you breathe in now, the archangels bring forth to you this ray to fill you and overflow through you. Breathe in deeply and receive this, and let it fill you and rebuild and restrengthen your love cocoon. After filling thyself, send this ray out to all the Pink Children on Earth and all those coming to birth. As you do this, you will connect to them and you will be welcoming and recognising them.

- The eleventh ray I wish to share about is the Magenta Archangelic Ray, which births the Magenta Children. This ray aligns and activates the spiritual focus and discipline of all beings. All souls birthed on this path walk strongly on the spiritual path and are often spiritual guides for others. This ray supports all beings to open their spirituality and their uniqueness with this, and to formalise their own path with God and empower this. Breathe as you receive this elixir to assist your own connection to your spiritual path, focus and discipline in life and your spiritual freedom and uniqueness. As this is poured forth to you and begins to overflow through you, open yourself completely to the power that is held within you and breathe this through you, allowing yourself to relax with your spirituality that is unique to you. Fill thyself and send it out to all the Magenta Children on Earth and those coming through. These children hold spiritual teachings and new inspirations to assist others to experience their spiritual freedom on Earth. These ones tend to need a focused environment and one with clear guidance. If this is not received, they tend to feel the need to guide others around them to assist the balance of energies. These children will often guide their parents and if they are not listened to, they will appear controlling through their temperament, for their emotions will be out of balance if they do not live in an environment where there is clear guidance. This ray will align them to their heart and also assist others to guide themselves clearly and to receive direct contact through guidance from God within.

Each of these families has two common elements.

- The first is related to their ability to attune to humanity and humanity's soul. In other words, all of these children from the eleven families have the ability to directly connect to the soul in any other human, and to sense how that soul is and to communicate with that soul telepathically. Due to this, these children find it very difficult to leave other children or people alone when they are having difficulty. They sense and feel when another soul is suffering and this affects them. They have difficulty in switching off from the souls around them if these souls are not being supported by any other being, so if one of these children is in an environment with beings that never receive any support, they will create themselves to be the support system for that being. Therefore, these children also need to have the support around them, offered by others, in order to recognise this gift so they do not become overburdened in trying to help souls in distress who have no support. These ones will develop relationships with souls in distress in their own family or in their school situation, and any distressed souls that are in the environment where they travel to regularly will also be supported by them. These children are highly sensitive and are psychic in nature, yet they are not the Psychic Children that many describe on the Earth. They sense through their feeling body more than through a direct contact through the psychic plane, which the Psychic Children hold.
- The second element that is common to all these families is their ability to be hopeful and positive naturally. This is a soul quality that they hold and although this is expressed uniquely by each of them, there is a bounciness in their natural soul vibration. This is a 'spring to life' again expression and is offered by them during times of stress and tension in their environment. They each tend to not want to be involved in the stress and tension, and instead naturally divert the energies through a bounciness and a spring to life. This is their way of trying to communicate with other souls to not involve themselves in stress and tension but to naturally guide themselves positively, which brings the spring of life back into a soul. If these ones are in an environment of negative soul expression, where a soul is patterned with deep amounts of negativity, each of these children will naturally try to assist them by supporting them, but will find it difficult due to the negative expression. Naturally, these children communicate openly but if they are not listened to and there is a deep negative energy around them, they will avoid this. If at first they are unable to be received on a communication level, they will usually shy away from this being as they do not wish to receive the negative energy through their being. This creates them to not have relationships with all beings if they are not listened to, for their hearts will always try to assist all souls. These eleven families share the need to not go into negativity to do this. Their whole state of balance and wellbeing is threatened if they do this.

Not only do these eleven families share these two elements, needs and gifts, but different groups within the eleven share elements with each other also. These are divided into three groups.

- The Crystal, Dolphin, Rainbow and Alcyone Children all share their need to have space to themselves so that they may integrate all that is occurring in their lives. These ones will each need to be alone at some point and if they do not receive this, they will tend to introvert or extrovert in their nature in an unbalanced way that is not for their highest benefit.
- The Golden, Lunar, Diamond and Emerald Children all share the need to co-create with others with joy and happiness. If they do not receive a level of co-creation with others, they will feel empty, worthless and unfulfilled in their potential to create. They have a need to do this regularly in group and not alone, as this is a part of who they are.
- The Pearl, Pink and Magenta Children all share the need to receive from Mother Earth, the energy to rejuvenate regularly. If they do not receive regeneration from Mother Earth, they will feel disconnected from the feminine energies and feel un-nurtured in life. These children are easily ungrounded if this occurs to them and creates them to be spacey and unclear in their communication. Through their regular connection to Mother Earth through the trees, their energies will naturally regenerate and assist them to be grounded and able to communicate freely.

To discover if your children are any of the first group or first wave of children( the first eleven pods) , you may call to Archangel Michael and Mother Mary and ask them to assist you to discover this. If this is true, this will be confirmed three times by spirit if you ask. Each of these children is oversouled by the Divine Mother and cared for by her. She blesses them and you deeply now with her love, and asks each of you to be aware of these new children and their needs and gifts to support them to be who they are on the Earth. She places a crystal flower within each of your hearts and asks you to receive these eleven Archangelic rays that bring these children's souls to the Earth to assist your own healing and alignment process.

My heart prayer is that all children on the Earth may be loved, recognised and honoured and supported to be who they are as they are growing so they do not feel the need to shutdown their energy bodies and need to open again and do the release work that many love/lightworkers have experienced on their path.

The Second Wave of New Children

Blessings from the One Heart! Beloveds, these sacred 11 pods that we now share information about are evolving at a rapid rate on the Earth. Presently, many of the children of Earth between the ages of 3 and 7, and between the ages of 9 and 12 years are deeply connected to these 11 pods. Know Beloveds that not all children of these ages are part of these pods, but many are. Through this they hold a deep connection to the Archangels that work with these Archangelic Rays. Each Archangelic Ray is oversouled and assisted by a series of Archangels who hold the role of caring for these soul families.

You may call on these Angels to be with you and to receive their love and assistance as you connect into each one of these 11 rays. The Divine Mother is beginning to connect to you more personally as you open to the words that are now offered to you. If you wish to receive a love infusion through your chakras and energy bodies as you read this information, you may call to the Divine Mother and ask for this. As you connect, 11 Archangels form a circle around you and each one brings the ray to you. If you wish to receive this, you may open yourself to this and it will bless you, offering you an influx of divine energy to your energy body as well as offering the qualities that these soul pods hold for you and any others that you may call to, to be with you at this time.

- The twelfth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Violet Archangelic Ray which births the Violet Children. This is now brought forth to you and offers you a divine cleansing of old energies that may be held by your soul. You are assisted now to release any energies that may not allow you to birth all your ideas into manifestation with grace and ease. The Violet Children hold the ability and gifts to be able to see what is needing to change to allow the grace and ease to flow through all journeys from the beginning of the first idea, through the whole process of creation and into a clear and divine manifestation. They are affected deeply by those around them who do not listen to them and their gift that allows the energies to flow with grace and ease and create all journeys to manifest and be divine experiences. They have large ideas themselves and are here to create these in groups with others they will meet in their life as they grow in years. They hold the overview of what is needed and when not listened to, they tend to see themselves as big, yet feel frustrated as others project smallness onto them, and this creates them to block their own manifestation. They are waiting for their group who will sit with them and listen to them and their ideas that allow all to flow into a divine experience. They often have difficulty with hierarchy as it does not allow them to be who they are and express their ideas fully. Call for the Archangelic Ray to fill you and to clear any old ideas that you felt were too big for you, and to assist your consciousness to expand and embrace the concept of thinking larger about all in your life and manifesting the divine picture for you in your life.
- The thirteenth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Indigo Archangelic Ray which births the Indigo Children. These sacred ones are very powerful in their brow and heart chakras and unless recognised for who they are, often find it difficult to allow their minds and hearts to grow to the power that is their divine potential. They are here on the Earth to assist all beings to connect to their divine potential, but are in great difficulty on the Earth, as often their teachers do not recognise their divine potential. This ray activates the heart and mind to work as one, and creates a dynamic energy field around the mind and heart, bringing a balance to the psychic abilities through love. When these ones are not loved and respected and also unrecognised as sensitives and highly psychic, they tend to contract within, either to hold their energy in or to find another world where they can freely express their energy. They have a powerful energy that is here for a divine purpose, and unless they are assisted to align to their purpose through beings understanding their unique potential, they tend to withdraw into another world and only connect partially to this world. This Archangelic Ray will assist them to bring their energy back into their bodies for these ones often partially leave their bodies if they are not recognised and offered assistance with embracing their potential. This is unique for each Indigo Child, and the key to helping Indigos is assisting them to connect to their heart and minds to know and to be guided from within. These ones will always have what they need if they are supported to receive their guidance from within, and be supported to create this in divine potential. The ray aligns one to one's heart and mind union, which also offers the inner guidance through holy communion with one's spirit and soul. Calling on this and receiving this Archangelic Ray now by breathing into the Indigo Archangelic Ray, you will begin to receive alignment of your mind and heart, which is the doorway to receiving clear guidance and recognition of your unique individual path. This is offered to you now in full force—breathe it in now as the Archangel of this ray steps forth to you now. These children hold the gifts to be able to see the divine potential and unique path of all beings and to assist them to find the inner keys within to step forth and create this path powerfully.

- The fourteenth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Yellow Archangelic Ray which births the Solar Children. This Archangelic Ray activates through you now and energises your solar plexus and brow chakras. It aligns your power frequency and your will to a new clarity, and it assists your mind to expand and release old beliefs that may create you to choose to use your will to manifest limitation in your manifestations. The Solar Children now support you, and these ones, Divine Mother shares, are new children birthing to the Earth to assist all of humanity with their mental limitations. These Solar Children have minds of golden light and do not know limitation, and cannot vibrate or believe it when adults or others speak in relation to limitations. These ones tend to not resonate with the words spoken describing limitation, and always try to present an alternative point of view based on infinite manifestation. These ones may be seen as dreamers to others who hold limitation, but in truth, are presenting what is possible if one believes without limitation. These ones have a great affinity with the new sciences coming to the Earth and will be birthing many new understandings, teachings and technologies to assist all beings to harmonise with Mother Earth. They share understandings of how humanity can create a new path with technology that will harmonise and blend with natural frequencies. When they are ignored and given no energy, they tend to create other families and create their own connections powerfully rather than going within and withdrawing from humanity. These are the ones that when parents are unavailable to spend time with them, they have already planned what they will be doing, and have made the arrangements without the parents knowing. These ones are wise and have great ability to direct their energy positively in their lives and are here to assist others to expand their minds creating through positivity. As you breathe now, you are asked to breathe out any old thoughts or beliefs that create you to hold limitations through your mind as this ray moves through you now.

- The fifteenth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Red Archangelic Ray which births the Ruby Children. This sacred ray grounds and anchors your energy now and assists all souls to ground to Mother Earth's core. This is the ray that supports all lost souls, and all souls that are trying to leave the Earth due to wounds or fears of being too powerful and not knowing how to release these fears into the earth. The Ruby Archangelic Ray opens the doorway to the Earth core for all souls to ground into their bodies more and to release the deepest wounds that they are afraid to let go of in the fear that it will hurt. The Ruby Children are here to assist all with their deepest pain, and these ones do not have fear of being with others who have pain. They do not judge these ones as they understand they are in pain. They hold great compassion for those in pain and will stay with them when others cannot bear to be near them. Often these ones will wish to assist others, and if this is not allowed, they will emotionally react as these ones do not wish to be controlled in any way, and will always express their truth and feelings loudly if others try to control them and stop them from assisting others. Often others project their fears on these children, and do not understand when they are choosing to be with others who are in pain, as these ones are not often recognised in the world for who they are and what gifts they hold. The Angels surround these ones and know that these souls have chosen to not take on the pain, but to compassionately love and support a being through any deep journey in life. The Ruby Ray protects and offers a shield to deep emotional grief and deep emotional, spiritual, mental and physical pain. As you breathe, you may call on this Archangelic Ray to fill you to create a shield of divine love and protection so each one of you can be more supportive and compassionate with others through their deepest journeys Beloveds.
- The sixteenth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Fuchsia Archangelic Ray which births the Magnolia Children. The Fuchsia Archangelic Ray provides expansion of the heart to all who receive this. Breathe in now as the Archangels of this ray blend this through you now and offer you divine assistance to activate your spiritual gifts and nature and open to the trust and love of the divine children who travel on this ray. These ones now come to support you, as these new children carry the heart of your own divine child back to you. These ones come to Earth to assist others to play and to receive an opening of the innocence and blessings of the childlike qualities of your divine nature. These children see all as children of God/dess and do not distinguish between ages. Their gift is to treat all equally as souls and to know if a soul has closed their divine heart as a child to God/dess, and how to assist that soul to unlock their heart and open it again. They are here to work deeply with souls and their hearts, and with the original contract of each soul as a child of God/dess and to assist all souls to open to this original contract and to heal any memories of when this contract felt broken. As you breathe now, you receive this ray through you to assist your soul to open and expand the heart again. You may forgive any experiences where your soul felt God/dess break the original contract of loving you as a soul. As you open to this, the Archangels of this ray share that the Magnolia Children hold the power to absolve the deepest heart wounds of souls, and when they are not recognised as love, they tend to hide away from the ones they love as they need a loving surrounding to support them to assist all others to open their hearts again. This is their deepest need—to have their own parents love and support them. If both parents do not share love with them regularly, they hide away and disconnect from all their love until this is offered to them.

- The seventeenth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Ultraviolet Archangelic Ray which births the Maldek Children. This sacred ray activates and aligns the love pathways through all the chakras. It is the Golden Lunar Children (Maldek) that hold the gift of trusting love to generate in all beings if they are supported with love. These ones hold the gifts to know that all beings are love, and no matter what state they are in, they can return to love if they are supported to know they are love and not judged as negative. These ones tend to see the positive in everything, even when the negative experiences are very powerful. They tend to only share the positive and appear to ignore the negative realities occurring around them. These ones can often find themselves in difficulty with being abused by others easily, as they see the love in their abuser and do not change their reality easily. They have great trust in the love eventually flowing and focus only on love in others, no matter what is occurring. These ones need great support and understanding as it is not their nature, no matter what is occurring, to be supported to find solutions so they also may experience love. Their gift is very powerful as they hold a direct connection to unconditional love with no boundaries. This sacred ray aligns all to unconditional love and brings all energies into unconditional love again. These children wish to offer this ray to all beings who find themselves in negative expressions of this love, yet will need permission from these ones, and are sometimes frustrated when they wish to send love, but this is not received by others. Breathe as you receive this now, as you are asked to anchor this into the Earth core now so many others may also assist, and be assisted by these children.
- The eighteenth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Platinum Archangelic Ray which births the Platinum Children. The Platinum Archangelic Ray is connected through Archangel Metatron and the Angels of the Platinum Ray. These ones now surround you and offer you this sacred dispensation that will begin to transfigure the deepest patterning within you. This ray works on a cellular level to release and absolve all cellular memory and shock. Also, old agreements and vows are transmuted by this ray alchemically. Call for this to flood through you in divine order for your being to absolve all that does not serve you in accordance to the divine blueprint of your being. These children have full contact with the divine plan for all beings, and have a very large overview of all that is in divine order for themselves and others around them. Through breathing this Platinum Ray in, all bodies and chakras will be aligned to the divine plan of your being. As you breathe it out to all around you, all around you aligns to the divine plan. These children do not like to be seen as they are protective of the divine plan, and will awaken this in divine order in accordance to divine plan. Their qualities are the truth of God, and the overview of all through the divine plan, which carries the highest potential for all beings on the Earth in each moment it is connected to. These children are needing to know that God is within them and all around them at all times and be supported to receive the divine energy through them that will allow them to step forth in their own time. These ones will be leaders who gather groups together in a non-hierarchical fashion. These ones will hold the divine plan and share this when it is in divine order to divine plan.
- The nineteenth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Vermillion Archangelic Ray which births the Inner Earth Children. This sacred ray orchestrates a clear connection to the Earth kingdoms such as the crystals, trees, fairies and Earth spirits. The Meru Children (Inner Earth) hold the gifts of opening the Earth portals and reconnecting all souls to the Earth kingdoms if they are not connected. They have wonderful telepathy with all kingdoms and they are needing assistance to feel that they are a part of humanity, for many of them feel much more connected to the Earth spirits than their own race (humanity). They find humanity unusual in that many are more focused on what they can have in material form around them, and are not aware of the physical surroundings that the Earth kingdoms provide and the glory and divine energy in all the trees and the natural environment offered by these kingdoms. They tend to wish to be outside rather than in houses, and feel unavailable to focus on materiality as the primary focus. Breathing and receiving this ray as it flows through you will enable you to also connect more deeply to the Earth kingdoms and the beauty of the Earth as a whole being and to nature and its wealth and beauty.

- The twentieth Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Crimson Archangelic Ray which births the Crimson Children. This ray supports all to go beyond what they have known before and to move into unknown paths that they are guided to. This ray supports all to step into the unknown and to let go completely of the old ways they have known, without knowing the new way. These children have complete trust in God/dess and in the God nature within all, and are here on the Earth to guide all to connect to the God Presence within. They hold the gifts of self-realisation and hold full faith in the path of stepping into the unknown and being held completely by God/dess and letting go of all control over one's reality. These ones do not understand beings that wish to control their lives fully and not co-create with the God Presence vibration and energy that is held within all. They are unable to understand beings that do not know this connection, but at the same time, have the gifts and keys to support these ones to reconnect to this and to the essence held within them. They are not focused on anything unless it is essential to this experience, and are often unaware of many things that feel trivial to them as their consciousness is focused on the highest vibration that connects all beings as one. This is the greatest gift these ones have—to assist a being's consciousness to connect to the oneness in everything. As you breathe, you may call for this ray to blend through you now and to activate and realign your connection now so that you may consciously experience a deeper connection to the oneness that is present in all things and all beings.
- The twenty-first Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Jade Archangelic Ray which births the Jade Children. This sacred ray activates and illuminates one's connection to the stars and the flowers on the Earth. It aligns the higher mind to the heart, and all children that birth from this ray hold the sacred gift of an activated higher mind with the ability to take in and absorb large amounts of information, new philosophies and understandings for the benefit of all beings. Many, many Buddhas are connected to this ray with the Archangels. These children have the gift to assist others to still their minds and receive from their higher minds higher understandings and awareness. These ones are future teachers who will assist many to open their higher awareness and activate their God consciousness. This ray, as you breathe it in now, blends and fills you and augments a clearing of your lower mind and opening of your consciousness to the wisdom and knowledge held through your higher mind. Breathe in and receive this assistance now. These children need to have inspirational subjects talked about and communicated with them, otherwise these children are bored and lose connection to humanity and spend most of their time and connection to non-physical beings.

- The twenty-second Archangelic Ray we wish to share about is the Opalescent Archangelic Ray which births the Opalescent Children. The Opalescent Archangelic Ray supports all individuals to co-create their heart dreaming with the love and support of all other beings. It attracts love and support from others and creates a supportive environment to manifest around one's being. Call for this now to flood through you and all your chakras and bodies. You may ask for it to anchor in your home, office or work environment and in the schools of your children if this resonates with you. It opens the hearts of all to a supportive consciousness of sharing energy and opening to speaking and sharing in a more loving way. The children birthed on this ray are incredibly supportive beings who create support to be felt when they speak, and in relationship to all they experience. They have a deep need to be allowed to support themselves and to speak clearly with love, and when others around them do not recognise the gifts they hold, they often choose not to speak what they know and hold this within themselves. They are able to offer wonderful relationships with others if they are openly received by others. They have new ways of relating to share with humanity and tend not to relate to others unless they can relate equally. They also tend to withdraw from others if the relationships between others are karmic and others are projecting at each other. These ones will tend to withdraw and disconnect from ones who project at others. To assist these ones, you will need to change your relationships with others around them, or else you will find them in a room alone away from you, and not wishing to be with you. You may call on this ray to change your environment and to create yourself to feel supported, not only by others, but by the being you are (self) and your God Presence.

These 11 soul pods are all inventive souls and share a creative flair with each other. If their creative flair is not brought out at an early age, they all share the tendency to feel frustrated and question their worth in the world, and why they are here. Each one of them is connected to the rest of the souls on Earth who birth through this ray with them. This is scattered through a large group of children up to the age of 22. The majority of these beings are highly telepathic, and often share connection with each other through the inner planes and their spiritual connection to each other.

The first four soul pods (12th-15th) share a deep reverence of life and acknowledgement of the divinity in all life, and find it difficult to kill insects and other beings, and often are emotional when this occurs in their presence by others desensitised to the insects' life.

The middle three soul pods (16th-18th) share the need to express themselves and physically connect with others in group as these ones are often unable to connect to themselves as individuals, and tend to express themselves and be free when connecting in group and sharing energy. These ones are not loners, and are holding a wound if they spend a great deal of time alone. They need to be recognised to bring their soul qualities out in natural expression and in honouring of who they are in the world.

The last four soul pods (19th-22nd) share the same expression of taking on the energies of others around them if they are not honoured and recognised for who they are

All soul pods of new children need a creative focus in their life and a connection to someone who cares and will assist them to bring their creativity through and develop their creative flair. This brings great confidence and empowerment to their beings, and will allow them to connect deeply to their soul gifts and express them, and to also open up to their own unique journey of soul purpose in life. Each of the children from these 11 soul groups have strong minds and may disconnect from humanity if they are not supported to meet their soul purpose in life.

Divine Mother blesses and thanks each one of you for connecting to these rays and soul pods of children. If, as you read these, you become aware of children who belong to these pods through your own inner guidance, you may call to the Divine Mother to assist these ones in divine order for their beings so their needs may be met, and if it is in divine order for the parents of these children to receive this information, you may share this with them. Follow your own heart guidance with this and call on the God Presences of the parents of these children to receive you and this information if it is in divine order for them, and ask them to send what is needed and in the highest potential for the family to grow and flourish with love... down into the bodies and the minds and hearts of the parents of this child. As you offer this to the God Presences and higher selves of these ones, you may just say your prayer that these parents may open to receiving this information for the highest benefit and understanding of their children. If you know of others who would be open to this information, you may send it to them. We only ask you to keep all accreditations and copyrights firmly in the document if you share this with others. May this bless and support all the new children and the parents of these ones so greater heart connection and flow of energy can occur between all families and beings.

In divine service to the new children, I send all my love to you and to these pods,
Qala

The Third Wave of the New Children

The New Children are presently birthing in 77 pods or 77 families, each bringing their own unique gifts and divine connection to our Earth. We have shared in previous articles, information on 22 of the pods of the new children that are deeply connected to the archangels, and the gifts and consciousness the New Children may need assistance with as they anchor on the Earth. As each child incarnates and is supported to receive that which they need to open their gifts, the higher vibrational gifts they hold naturally open as a flower opens when it receives the rain and abundance of soil and sunshine. This is a natural process and this information is brought forth from the heart of the Divine Mother to support all children to receive the recognition of their unique gifts and their unique needs in this life.

As each one of these souls incarnates as a new child, the consciousness of all beings is offered a divine opportunity to raise in vibration as these new children bring the Earth a higher vibration. We speak of the Christ Consciousness anchoring through all aspects of humanity through the birthing of these new children, and the awakening of the light within all of humanity. These new children are accelerators of consciousness and each one carries a higher frequency soul vibration. As the Earth is ascending in vibration, the portals of birth have raised in vibration allowing many higher vibrational souls to be able to birth on Earth.

The Psychic Children are another 11 of the 77 pods of the New Children and each one is directly linked to the angelic and dolphin heart rays that form a grid of holy communion on Earth. The name "Psychic Children" has come to these children as they are deeply connected to the sixth dimension and are all advanced souls that hold an integrated psychic connection to their higher selves. Each of these eleven soul pods are highly psychic and share telepathy with each other and communicate through the dolphin pathways on Earth. These dolphin pathways are grids of higher psychic activity that are anchored within the Earth and oceanic portals and are a powerful form of Earth telepathy for communion between souls and spirit. This psychic grid is expanding and growing to embrace and assist many others who do not have their connection to their higher self. The blessings of these new children affect many other children, as they are also guides to connect all children and all beings to this sacred grid. The messages of their divine journeys are shared with all on this grid so as to support all beings connected to the grid to learn from their experiences instead of co-creating the same old experiences. This way the psychic children share all information and all journeys with each other through this grid, in an energetic merge with each other as one large family.

These children have come as this large family to anchor the Christ Consciousness on Earth more deeply through humanity, and as eleven individual soul pods with the purpose of assisting all beings to connect to their higher self, the truth of their heart and soul. Each of the eleven soul pods is unique and different in a myriad of ways, yet they hold in common, their connection through the dolphin pathways. These pathways are the crystalline light pathways that higher vibrational intelligence travels on through the Earth plane. The grid is held in crystals in the earth and in the north and soul pole. Each Psychic Child has one of the crystals from this grid etherically interlinked through their heart and brow chakras. In other words, within the heart and brow chakras of each Psychic Child, there is a beautiful etheric crystal that links their consciousness to this sacred grid.

These crystals are etheric (made of light frequency) and allow the transfusion of psychic communication to be advanced and instant. Each of these children has higher knowing of all that is occurring in their environment and hold a higher love quotient. The dolphins are very connected to these children and hold a synergy in their communication with them and share the dolphin pathways with these children. The dolphins also hold a crystal within their hearts that is a point of connection for this sacred grid. They have another crystal in their tail that supports them to receive any messages from this grid from other dolphins and also from those who are interdimensionally surfing in communication and transmission through this grid.

Each soul from these 11 soul pods has a supportive nature and experiences interconnection with others as natural. They hold the power of communion and ability to go within to know answers. They may be sometimes, and occasionally quite bothered by the interference of psychic vibrations that are not emanating from the heart. This can create them to be filled with energies that are not directly coming from their higher selves. This may come from their environment, from other beings or from other dimensions of themselves. As each of them learn to open themselves more fully and ground their abilities on the Earth and be accepted by society, they will learn how to be in the presence of all beings without being disturbed psychically. At times, their emotional and mental bodies may be imbalanced when these disturbances occur. The eleven soul pods are described in the following passages to assist any Psychic child or the parents, carers and friends of this child to discover connection through the higher dimensions to the child's soul path and purpose. Know that the descriptions below are very general and that not only does each soul pod have a purpose, but that each child has a purpose that is unique within this. Through the discovery of the soul pod purpose, these children may become closer to their own unique, divine purpose on Earth. This can assist in the education of all children as each has certain gifts and may need a unique education that is in alignment and recognition of these gifts.

The Rainbow Crystal Children

These ones are from far away and have not been to the Earth for a long time. They were here when the Earth was a non-physical form prior to the physicalisation of the Earth. They are deeply connected to Lemuria and the cities of light that are anchored in the oceans and waterways of the Earth. They have songs and carry a language that vibrationally attunes all souls to love and to the experience of love. Their touch is gentle, yet deep. Each one is extremely sensitive to sound vibration. They are here to emanate sound and to change the vibration in environments with sound. These ones will create this from within themselves and some will also invent new music with this. The sounds are anchoring a new dreaming for all Earth beings that is related to group consciousness and the expression of love. They are powerful group uniters and enjoy uniting others and bringing souls together. There are many that have embodied as females—a larger percentage than in male bodies. They share that this is due to timing and that over the next five to eight years, others will come from their pod and many more will embody in male bodies. They share that they have difficulty with distorted sounds or the sound vibration of humans speaking mistruths. This is their greatest pain, as they know when beings are not speaking the truth.

The Faerie Children

This soul pod is very large, yet unfortunately some of these children are in very difficult circumstances on the Earth presently. They have come to open the hearts of all and to assist the most sensitive and hidden parts of a being to receive love. They have awareness of what is hidden within a being and why they are hiding this. They have great counselling abilities and a very deep connection to the fairies on the Earth and in the stars. These ones tend to play in the other realms and explore this connection for there is a commitment between the fairies and these children to assist humanity and the Earth spirit to live in harmony. They have a great love for the Earth and the flowers and gardens and would like everyone to have a garden. It is their heart dream that in the future, every family can be connected to a garden that is flowering and filled with love and life force. It is their vision of the future Earth and is one of the reasons they have come to Earth—to create the visioning and manifestation of more gardens on the Earth. They are specifically aware of humanity's disconnection from the Earth through city living. These ones are very openhearted and gentle in their divine makeup and are willing to be unifiers for others who have difficulty with their hearts. When they feel it is too difficult for souls to deal with their hearts, they merge with them and assist them to open their hearts and release the pain that may be trapped in their hearts. These children are powerful seers and they are highly awakened through their multidimensional sight. They see into the other realms such as the faerie and angelic realms and this also assists them to hold their connection more deeply whilst being on the Earth.

The Emerald Crystal Children

These children are keepers of the Emerald ray. They are also powerful in their seership and have awareness of the other realms and what is occurring to those they are connected to. They have a deep commitment to assist all beings that experience difficulty with astral energies, and spend time as souls assisting those trapped in astral webs or those affected by large astral thought forms. They work deeply with Archangel Michael and the legions of light to assist those in difficulty and who are troubled in the world. They have come to support the astral plane to be absolved and released from the Earth and carry great patience as souls. These ones are not easily affected by others around them. They appear to be quite a solid rock when they hold their connection. They are very grounded and carry a Buddha type energy when they are in full open heart and speaking the divine truth and wisdom they hold within. They have abilities to scan energies long distance and to know how to assist souls to be freed from entanglements of energy that are unseen. They each carry the sword of the Emerald ray that allows them to assist all souls who are emotionally bound by the astral plane. They have a great affinity with plant medicine and have a unique understanding of alchemy, of blending plants as medicine.

The Ama'nu (Golden Emerald Crystal) Children

These children in soul pod have a very powerful inner knowing and trust in all that is occurring. They carry some difficulties with relating to the world as it is, and with how humanity interrelates with each other throughout the world. They see that this is like a segmented society that has different rules for different beings in accordance to whoever is in authority, and are presently discerning as a pod, how humanity has lost its inner authority and connection as a race. Their role is related to assisting humanity with this. They have the most difficulty with humans who wish to overpower them and hold an authoritative role with them. Their consciousness does not resonate to authority and frustrates some of them. They are aware of much and wish to share this in a system that is non-hierarchical. They are here together to create a way to birth this non-hierarchical system so they may share equally with others and be taken seriously. These ones wish in their hearts for a new education system to be developed for all children and have the keys to creating this. Their role is to assist other children to embrace this and be co-creative in this as a future way for children to create and learn together. They share that they are aware of the gifts that other children have and the keys they hold and how to bring these out of themselves. In their hearts they are aware that there is a timing with this, and they receive directly from their higher self or spirit that this role will be in the near future. They have a gift of communication when hierarchy is not present, and they have difficulty in communication when it is present. Each one of them is deeply connected to the mastery of the new children and has leadership qualities that involve non-hierarchy.

The Aquari (Aquamarine & Silver) Children

These souls are incredibly sincere and speak from their hearts directly when they are communicated with. They love simplicity and beauty and the simple honouring that ceremony, prayer and meditation offer them when they connect within. They are here to anchor sacred space and create sacred space. They are here to change the environment and create new environments and have powerful creative visualisation abilities. As they receive an idea they can immediately visualise it as it moves through its creation process, and determine all that is needed to create this in the most flowing and perfect way. Their focus is the creation of beauty and they like to be surrounded by beauty and serenity. These children are here to activate the peace energy in all environments by creating sacred space in many different parts of the world that need to receive a sacred connection and activation of the vibration of peace and love. These children are very much in their hearts and do not philosophise a great deal, but instead see and recognise the beauty in all around them and in others sharing the beauty with them. They speak of the positive that others show to them and encourage the positive nature to grow in all. They are gifted with the sight to see the divine potential in everything and a way to create this to grow.

The Solos (Silver & Platinum) Children

These children in soul pod are alchemisers of all energies and unifiers of all energies. They unify and alchemise all energies that come to them through their beings and transmute all energies, and then transmit unified frequencies to the source of these energies. They have huge heart chakras and great compassion for all beings. They receive all that is given to them openly and take this into their heart to alchemise and unify all energies. These ones are teachers of alchemy and have the ability to alchemise all energies and share the true power of alchemy. They are aware that humanity has not yet fully taken responsibility for their own energies and have compassion for them. They are aware that humanity is not yet ready to be completely responsible for all energy and have come to Earth to assist them. They are aware that in the future, many more humans will be willing to be responsible and not project their unresolved energies. These children have a role with humanity to support them to take responsibility. These souls often communicate about other ways to work with energy that will not affect others with negativity. They can be protective of other souls who are being projected upon with negativity, and at times take in these energies to unify and alchemise these so as to protect the souls who cannot alchemise these. They are learning to work together more powerfully to create a greater support network of resolution of all negative energies. These ones are aware of the circumstances of many other Psychic Children, and that some of them are having difficulty and need assistance. These ones share that they have the abilities to translate and visit other children to assist them to resolve energies. They have the gift to soul travel and to receive from their Source, all that is needed to assist others in trouble. They hold the overview and are able to see all energies that they intend to. They have very powerful, long distance vision and very powerful zoom lens vision. They are extraordinary seers and are able to work long distance and assist others because of this. They have been asked by their God Source to always hold the highest vision of all beings, and of all humans learning to live in peace and be responsible for all energies. They have been asked to hold the vision of humanity ceasing all projection of negative energies.

The Kumi (Blue & Golden) Children

This sacred soul pod holds an inventive energy and is a group of souls who have deeply inventive spirits. They are here to create new forms and inventions in the future that will serve all beings, including the Earth. Their own hearts are magnifiers for whatever intention they attune to. They are holding new healing gifts for all of humanity. Each one of them has a deep connection to sound, and sound is important to these ones. The sounds around them can inspire them to bring their creative spirit through, or it can create them to be affected in a more contracted way. These souls are deeply expressive and hold the purpose of sharing this expression freely with others to assist others to express their hearts. Through this expression, there is great creativity and inventiveness that allows the healing gifts they hold to birth on Earth. Without the freedom of their own self-expression through their environment, these ones can feel tormented and contracted. There is a great sea of expression within each one of them that is infinite in its ability to create harmony, balance, and the flow of the divine feminine at play. These ones have come to assist all to honour the feminine and bring the feminine expression through, in creative play.

The Dolphi (Pink & Emerald Crystal) Children

This soul pod is filled with souls that are guides and teachers who inspire others. They hold a deep connection to the unseen worlds as wisdom keepers. They travel as they sleep to the schools on the inner planes, as each of these souls is deeply focussed on their ascension and the wisdom of God. These are ancient souls who have incarnated as teachers many times and have returned to the Earth to bring inspiration to all souls and the offering of wisdom, as teachings. These ones like to do this invisibly and to not be seen or noticed until it is their time to be presented. It will be their quiet words of wisdom that may astound their parents at times, that may show these ones to be possibly from this pod. These ones have great intellect but are not intellectual, as they hold a balance fully through their mind and heart. They are solid in their vibration and connection to the Earth as they have been on the Earth previously and ascended as souls on the Earth.

The Rainbow Serpent Children

These children are embodied in all races and hold the purpose of assisting humanity and all races to open their hearts to each other without discrimination or prejudice about race, language, colour or culture. These souls have embodied previously in many different cultures and hold keys to assisting humanity to open their minds and hearts and not judge other races and cultures. These ones have come for the purpose of linking cultures and assisting all to heal their differences. They are deeply connected to the new dreaming of Earth and have a direct connection to the ancestors and guardian keepers of each mountain on the Earth. They link the ancestors to all other Psychic Children and to all others who join the psychic network of love. As they grow in age, they will speak for the ancestors from the mountains and share the wisdom from these Earth guardians. They hold a deep connection to the Earth current known as the rainbow serpent, and hold spiritual connection to this rainbow serpent. These ones are also mystery keepers who hold assistance for others to find their path and purpose and the free flow of their soul's heart.

The Pan Children

These children are deeply connected to the Earth spirit - the nature spirits, the elves, and Pan, the guardian of all Earth kingdoms. They have come to bring joy and lightness to all activities and to connect all to the joy of being on the Earth in oneness with the Earth spirit. They are highly gifted communicators with all nature spirits and all kingdoms of the Earth as highly advanced telepaths. Through this, they are able to receive understandings of the medicine of all plants and animals and the vibrational essences of all on the Earth. These ones hold the heart keys to assist the restoration of the Earth plane and the restoration and healing of areas that have no connection to nature, where the nature energy has been removed. They are here to balance the natural flow of energies again through areas in the Earth and to direct others, in the future, with projects of balancing these energies. Their deepest heart wish is for Mother Earth to be allowed to flourish and for humanity to live in harmony with all Earth kingdoms.

The Pegasus Children

This sacred soul pod has many gifts including a strong ability to hold the silence and to connect deeply into the now moment with stillness. These ones naturally like to meditate and be quiet and feel the pulsations of the stillness of the light of God. They need to have this stillness in their lives and be allowed time to meet with this stillness inside themselves. Their souls have the ability to help others to balance their energies by connecting them to the stillness in each moment and bring all into the present moment. They are here to assist all to bring their energies into the now, rather than living in the past or future in their minds. They carry the frequencies of integration and assist others to integrate their energies through entering stillness, silence and breath, and being conscious. They carry the grace of God for others to be able to be still inside themselves, and easily bless others with this gift by holding their own still connection in the presence of others. They tend to withdraw their energies when many are in complex situations and the energies are mixed and not harmonised. They are more attracted to individuals than groups unless the energies are harmonised in the group. It is through their connection to the stillness that they find they are able to fly as a Pegasus or expand their consciousness to be one with God. They are here on the Earth to have this experience and to share it with others and guide others to the stillness.

All these eleven soul pods have unique qualities and abilities which will activate as they are offered a supportive environment for their growth and well being. Each one of these children are aware of what it is that they need, and it is suggested to all parents, guides and friends of these children to listen to what these children truly need in their lives in regards to creating an environment that supports them to open to who they are, and the expression of this with grace and ease. There are many children who have birthed through one of these pods and they may not have received what they needed through their environment to support them. These ones may still hold their connection to the dolphin pathways if they have been linking in with the other children.

Some of these children have partially disconnected from these pathways and do not receive the support as fully as they could through their psychic link to other children. If you feel, or are guided from within, that a child you know is one of these children but only holds a partial connection to the grid, you may ask this child's soul to receive assistance from Archangel Michael to support them to reconnect and receive the love and support from these pathways and the psychic communication with the other children. Archangel Michael will assist all children to re-establish their connection through the dolphin pathways through a simple prayer to him. This disconnection may have occurred through difficulties in birth or early childhood traumas. As these children are reconnected to the grid, they will feel supported on Earth again.

Each of these eleven soul pods also carry a specific vibrational frequency that they emanate when their hearts are open. This frequency is able to activate the psychic abilities in others to awaken if it is in divine timing for their beings. When one of these Psychic Children opens their heart fully to another being, and this other being is ready to receive a deeper psychic connection to their higher self, they release a specific frequency of energy that assists this being to receive this connection. This is one of the purposes of the vibrational ray that these children have all birthed upon. These rays are known as the Angelic dolphin rays. Each of these rays carries specific frequencies to activate a soul's connection to their higher self or spirit. You may call for these Angelic dolphin rays to flood through you now in divine order for your being, and call to each of these eleven soul pods to come to you to assist you to open your connection to your higher self. You may ask for these ones to support you over a period to open your telepathy with your higher self. You may ask for all limitations and old memories or energy blockages to be lifted from you by the Archangels, Angels and Ascended Masters who care for the dolphin pathways. You may call to your higher self to merge with you and open the communication between you whilst in the presence of these eleven soul pods, if it be in divine order for your being. If it is divine timing for you Beloveds, you will have an experience of opening this connection powerfully. If it is not your time, then you may ask that this activate in divine timing for you when your soul is ready to receive this.

I hope all this assists each one of you. I send you my love and blessings. We surround you with the Angelic dolphin rays and flood these through you as you open your heart to these children who now step forth to you. These ones bring their gifts and offer them to you in divine order for your being. We bless you and thank you.

The Fourth Wave of the New Children

The New Children through Qala Sri'ama Phoenix

The Stellar Children

Blessed Be! We come as a group of Angels to introduce these children to you. Sananda and Mary walk with us as we share this with you. As you begin to read this, Sananda and Mary and the Angelic Heart of all of the Stellar Children, begins to send waves of love and light to you. Be receptive to having an energetic experience with the children as they introduce themselves to you. These pods of new children are birthed on 11 stellar rays. You may call on these stellar rays to flood through you as the new children introduce themselves to you.

Each one of these pods is unique, not so much for their gifts with the light, but with their heart expansion and the ability to give freely to others without conditions. Each of these pods are natural transmitters of energy from the heart of an ascended realm, and each one, when expressing their true nature, is a divine bridge for other souls and their path of ascension, offering them a reconnection to the stars. The stars hold higher dimensional forms of consciousness for humanity, and it is through humanity's reconnection to the stars through their energy body, that a doorway is opened for them to receive a downloading of their higher consciousness. The Starseed children, also named Stellar Children, are natural antennas for starry energy, and their most profound experiences can come from star connection to the night sky. It awakens their memory of who they are as souls and allows them to release any denser vibrations they may pick up from their environment or from their communications in life. Experiencing the night sky under the stars offers an instant rebalancing for all stellar children, and opens their consciousness to anchor and ground on Earth and assists them to connect to Earth without losing their starry connection.

These children are also highly psychic in nature and are partners or activators for the psychic children. They work closely with them and are often seen as psychic children. We share that they are highly psychic, yet do not hold the depth and intensity of psychic abilities that are held by the psychic children as their psychic connection is held mainly through their higher chakras. The stellar children have very large heart chakras and are extremely sensitive. They also communicate on the same psychic pathways (the dolphin pathways) as the psychic children, and share a focus of world peace with them. Their energetic gifts are more developed through the heart than many of the psychic children, due to the profound development of their heart chakras.

Each of the children come in waves or groups of pods, and the wave of stellar children is made from 11 pods. These children have been birthing on the Earth since 1987, with some also coming much more rarely, before this time on Earth. They are still incarnating and very soon many will birth during the period of 2007 to 2009, for through Divine Plan, this is a time when many of these stellar souls have chosen to come to Earth in support of the awakening of all souls on Earth. The children, as they grow in age, will become activators of others in their awakening process. They hold specific gifts for activation of the energy body and activation of new consciousness. Each of these children do not recognise the Earth as, for most of them, this is their first incarnation on Earth. Often they have difficulty digesting heavy vibrations due to this, and their bodies can be affected if they receive too many heavy vibrational foods or toxins.

We begin with calling forth to the first pod of the eleven to share with you who they are, why they come to Earth, what gifts they bring to share, and how you can help them to be here.

The Golden Whale Children

"Our message is simple. We are here for the Earth herself and the replenishment of her physical body. We are here to build new structures that will enlighten her physical body. We come only for this and our experience of this, so we ask not to be forced to do other things. This is our greatest difficulty, being forced to do what we do not need to do, because of protocol. We have difficulty with responding to any being that wishes us to do what we are not here to do, due to our sensitivity. The whales and our own beings are in communication about the Earth and the state of her being. We are deeply connected, like the whales, to Mother Earth's akashic records and are here to release the veils of consciousness that create humanity to not know Earth to be a divine being. We also share that we need privacy and understanding so we may silently have our contact with the whales so we ask that we be allowed to sit in silence and communicate with the whales inwardly. We ask for kindness and compassion, for we are different. Our objective is not fast motorbikes or Barbie dolls. We are here for the ocean and water connection and care a great deal about the Earth and her condition. We are sensitive to the Earth's needs, so give us a garden and animals and we have all we need. The gifts we bring are primarily our ability to know what the Earth and her sacred sites, and the power sites hold over the land. Also we have a deep connection with all ancestors and guardian spirits of the land and we are a bridge for them to humanity so the message of caring for the land may be shared with humanity."

The Golden Whale Children are deeply connected to Andromeda and are natural channels for spirit. Their primary gift is their ability to channel divine messages from the stars for humanity to awaken and be enlightened by their connection to Mother Earth and the stars. This is so closely linked through their personalities, that they appear very wise beyond their years and always have the right thing to say that will shift energy in any situation. This comes naturally from them and is strengthened by the loving confidence that adults and their parents have in them. Each Golden Whale Child holds a deep connection to the whales through their feeling body and their telepathy body, and will often have experiences in group consciousness with the whales. If you have a golden whale child, we ask that you do not deny this child's gifts even if they are not understood, as any denial will make this child deeply withdraw within to another realm where they can have free contact with the whales. Encourage this child to connect to the whales in whatever form they are drawn to, and encourage them to express all their feelings freely so they can transform easily.

The Unicorn Children

“We speak of our hearts as unicorn children and share our connection with the stars is through Antares. All souls on Antares are gifted with seership so we share this gift with humanity through our connection to unicorns and the unicorn body of light. We are understanding in our nature but at times find it difficult to understand others who cannot see the truth and that seem blinded by their old perceptions or the perceptions of those around them. We are advanced seers and at times need to embrace patience with others who cannot see as we do. We see the energy form in others and their intentions, before we see the physical and material manifestations. We see that which creates the physical situations to take place, and this at times creates us to be one step ahead of all conversations. We are natural teachers, yet are learning to listen to others who do not have the same gifts as us so they may teach us about the physical earth and the human reality. We experience great sensations of light and our connection to the stars creates these waves of light to channel through us, yet our physical bodies need assistance to receive this light. At times we have difficulty with our physical bodies receiving our light. As seers, we often know things before hand and with our gifts we plan all in accordance to what we see is possible for us. Our greatest difficulty is being contained and told that we are unable to create this for ourselves, and that we are imagining things and these things will never be real for us. Our gifts of seership are very powerful and we have been given these gifts to assist others. This is our dedication, to assist humanity with our seership, to help humanity see the light in themselves and in all situations and be empowered to change all situations. We only ask for you to believe that we can see the energy that creates the physical, and for you to allow us to be free with our seership.”

The Unicorn Children have delicate temperaments as their sensitivities are related to the upper head region above the brow chakra, where their energy body has a unicorn horn that is their instrument of light for seership. Each one of these children, over their life, will naturally open this gift more deeply if this area of their head is cared for through the following forms of assistance. It is firstly important that these children are listened to, and their seer ship is recognised as a gift from God, and that this gift is encouraged to open in the presence of their family and friends so this child will not become frightened of humanity and using their gift with them. Secondly, it is important that these children are offered freedom to sense energy, and if they sense energy that they are unsure of, they are to be taught to send love to all they see, rather than fear what they see. The third important experience for these children is for each of them to be given time away from other children so they can open their full sensitivities and sensory abilities in the presence of stillness and nature. This would be a great gift to regularly give a unicorn child, as their sensitivity is so powerful that they partially shut it down for most of the time when they are with others, especially other children who are loud.

The Blue Crystal Children (the second largest pod of crystal children)

“We speak of our hearts and minds as being empowered by the blue ray of light, creating us to all have a very powerful intelligence through our minds. This is our gift that we bring to share through inventions. We are also related to the blue ray children but are presently gifted differently with the following attributes of the mind. We have very expansive memories and abilities with numbers and words. We are able to absorb large banks of information and store them easily for our use at later times. We are able to create powerfully with all symbols and languages, as our mastery or gift is with communication and the development of education. We are here as future educators of humanity. We bring a new ray of clarity to the use of the mind. We are psychic, and both hemispheres of our brain are used by us to calculate, summarise, invent and know, and simultaneously to be inspired, to create and feel the flow of active intelligence and our use of consciousness. We are all inventors and creators, here to use our active intelligence to help humanity grow. Our difficulty is with relationship, as many who are not as active through their intelligence appear to be too slow for us. Once we have met one concept, we have another five already birthing and not many others wish to communicate with a mind filled with inventions and concepts birthing. We are natural communicators as teachers, but our abilities to relate to all humans are very slow. We ask for assistance with this and share that love is the platform we are able to be filled at. A loving compassionate relationship will always bring us back to another being's reality so we can connect to them."

The Blue Crystal Children are divine teachers of awareness with advanced ideas and an advanced methodology of sharing information through communication. They are unlike other children in that they stand out as analytical and as being very interested in the details of all in life. The detail of everything except human relationship, fascinate them. They sometimes recognise they have difficulty with relating without words and without detail, and ask to be assisted to connect deeply, just through the heart, to other humans. They have great connection with all they see, hear and experience but find it difficult to connect to anything that others experience unless they see it or feel it. They are deeply sensitive to feeling and experiencing in the present moment, and these feelings are very deep if their minds have connected to the details of any journey or situation. They can be highly emotional in times of release if they have experienced someone near them in pain or trauma, and these emotions will be extreme if their minds have received the details of this trauma. They are delicate emotionally in the presence of any other stressed soul due to their crystal child matrix that is a natural healer for all souls.

The Lotus Children

"We are the Lotus children and we are very close to the Buddha light that lives within all beings. It is the stillness and our clarity that comes when we are allowed to be still and quiet. Our greatest love is the Earth and the many different forms she creates such as the rocks and plants and animals. We are fascinated with the Earth's forms and see beauty within each form. We are here to assist humanity to see the perfection in every form and to accept and love their own human forms. We are here to assist humanity to love their bodies and the Earth and all the bodies on Earth. Our real gift is our patience and our ability to go deep inside and commune in the stillness of the light. When all in life becomes hectic in our environment, we leave the outer world and go inside to experience the stillness. It is from there that we are given wisdom and love to be in the world. We ask only one thing of our parents, to help us know that we are not strange or unusual just because we seek the stillness and quiet in life. Our connection to the Earth's different forms is one of our passions, and also that which we have researched and studied in other lives. We have wisdom about the healing properties that each form holds for all other beings on Earth. In this way, we have a unique gift with medicine and healing that is natural to us in every way. We ask for assistance from our parents and guardians to assist us to expand this wisdom and love for healing. We are different from other children as we are always listening inside and sometimes we forget to listen outside."

The Lotus Children are able to commune with the Buddha heart of all on Earth. The Buddha heart is a place within all beings that expresses only stillness and silence. It is a place of emptiness and at the same time fullness. It is the place of being, and the acceptance of all being in divine perfection. It is the deep centre of one's inner light and from this place one is able to receive and experience one's wisdom or love. The Lotus Children are here to share with all beings, wisdom about the healing power of the body, plants, animals and all natural forms on Earth. They are keepers of the wisdom of natural medicine, and specifically, the nature of the inner force of healing (the light) that all bodies have within them. They hold gifts relating to this area of service and if these are supported to open freely, they will bring great assistance to many as they open to their life of service on Earth.

The Voidal Children

"We are the Voidal Children and there are many of us birthing on Earth. We come from a different world to Earth, a place of no duality, a place where only love is shared and offered as consciousness. We do not have bodies where we come from so the physical body is often difficult for us to deeply connect to, and we need assistance to anchor in our physical bodies and to care for them as the rest of humanity do. We come from a realm where many new souls are birthed from or formed, and we assist these souls to birth and change their form. We have come to the Earth to assist all souls on Earth to change their form, their bodies, minds and ways of being to allow them to experience oneness in being. We speak of oneness with other humans, rather than difficulty. We speak of oneness with their bodies rather than dis-ease. We speak of oneness with their minds, rather than battle in the mind. We speak of oneness with the Earth rather than disconnection from the Earth. This is our path for we hold the love for all souls to experience oneness and change their ways, forms, minds and bodies. Transformation through love is our gift. Our gift of compassion and the direct understanding of how to assist a being when they are not experiencing oneness, come in many forms of love and understanding so this soul can open to this and create a more loving experience. We only ask that as we are supported to bring our gifts of love, we are listened to and accepted, no matter how wild or untamed we are. We have a wildness that cannot be tamed and a part of us is like the wind. We can be gentle, powerful, stormy and cleansing. We have emotions that move very quickly through us as we have a direct connection to the emotions of all beings around us, and our way is to balance all the environmental emotions. If there are emotions that are not expressed in the environment, we feel them and release them. This is our way as we hold the field of love for all beings so they may experience a deeper connection to unconditional love."

The Voidal Children are brilliant educators and also brilliant communicators. They are very interested in people and what occurs within each person. They are able to merge with any person and know immediately what is going on inside - mentally, emotionally and spiritually for that person. They have a charisma, as they are very powerful children. They are often mistaken for indigo children as they have a wildness that is unable to be tamed and they do not resonate with authority on any level. They are wild and free and have no boundaries with expressing this wildness wherever they wish, if it will serve a higher purpose. As they are connected emotionally to every being in their environment, they often release energy unexpectedly if their environment is deeply blocked, emotionally. This is a part of their wildness expressing itself when this occurs. This release is of the highest priority to them and they have no way of stopping this from taking place. Each voidal child may be supported by their parents to understand that this is what is occurring when they release. It can be of the highest benefit for parents of voidal children to take responsibility for their emotions so their home environment is free of emotional blockages.

The Silon Children

"We are the Silon Children and we share that we are deeply connected to the sun and larger suns beyond the earth sun. We share that the sun is the most important energy in connection to Earth and it brings the light to Earth. We are here to assist all beings that are unable to receive the light from the sun, to connect again to the sun. We are here to assist all souls who have fear of the light and have a deep depression inside. We are here to assist all who have trauma, memory and difficulty with being on Earth to live a full, happy life on Earth. We have healing gifts to lift the old memories from all souls on Earth and assist them to reconnect to the light and the sun again. We bring a rainbow energy to all souls and it has the power to release all memories of darkness from all souls who receive this rainbow energy. Our gift is this rainbow energy we hold inside, and our heart wish is to help many come out of their inner darkness and experience their joy and light. We, at times, are afraid ourselves when adults or other children play out the games of the dark memories and choose to harm or abuse each other. We cannot understand humans that choose this, yet hold compassion for them and see that they are embodied by their dark memories and it is their inner darkness that plays these games of hurt and abuse with others. We are natural counsellors, yet we need to learn to not fear the humans who are embodied by their inner darkness. We ask our parents to support us and educate us with this, to always have compassion for the beings who are embodied by their inner darkness and to not be fearful of them."

The Silon Children are very kind and compassionate to all other souls and will often take the brunt of negative energy just so the peace can be held amongst all souls. It is for this reason, their parents are guided to teach them to see the difference between love and light and to remind them that love has the power to heal all, and light has the power to create and magnify all. They are natural channels of love and light due to their loving intention to not judge all beings and to help all, no matter what the souls are doing. They enjoy contact with others greatly and may tend to be very involved in other people's relationships. They will learn of their natural counselling abilities and when it is appropriate to offer their gifts to assist others. This will help them in their own relationships, for often other people wish to be left alone and do not want assistance. The children are deeply compassionate, yet at times fearful of the beings they are drawn to connect with. They are attracted to people who need assistance with their innermost dark self. This may create these children to have difficulty if they are not educated about the power of love, and how no harm can come to them if they have an open heart, for their love and light protects them.

The Obsidian Children

"We are the obsidian children. We have many gifts but our primary gift is the ability to dream and imagine our reality powerfully so we can manifest our reality as we wish to be. We are filled with a determination that other souls may not have so deeply. This determination is to pave our way and create the life we wish to experience. We are able to manifest and also share with others, how to manifest the life they wish to experience on Earth. We do not create it with our minds although we use our minds to imagine, exactly as our hearts dream it, our reality in the future. We are directed by our hearts and the dreams that our hearts give us. We focus on every detail with our minds and hearts and through our gifts we create the full reality that our hearts dream. This is our full purpose in life, to manifest the heart dreaming and to share with others how they can also do this through their determination and the inner focus of their energy. We only ask that our parents not be too strict with us, and allow us to dream and speak of our heart dreams, and we ask that they not limit these due to their belief that we dream of too many wonderful things, and that only the lucky people in the world can have those things. We ask to be allowed to manifest freely that which we dream, and ask our parents to believe in us and learn how to change their reality by dreaming with us as well."

The Obsidian Children are brash in their determination at times. They have strong beliefs in the ease and grace of life, and do not believe in struggle. They do not identify with struggle and the belief systems based on life being limited by circumstance, family upbringing, finance, connections, health, gifts or destiny. They hold the knowing that all beings create their reality and through many lives, have learnt how to manifest exactly that which they wish to experience. They respond powerfully to their hearts and the dreaming of their heart, therefore they are passionate children and passionate about their interactions in life. Each child is aware of their life and of each choice they make in determining their quality of life, and therefore they are drawn to go within when they are required to make decisions. They have difficulty with believing their teachers and parents, and relating to their teachers and parents deeply, if their parents or teachers do not hold the same knowing of this universal teaching in life.

The Blue Rose Children

"We are the Blue Rose Children. We hold a deep connection to the sacred sites on Earth and the angels that bless sacred places. We hold the gift to create spaces into sacred spaces where the energy of love and light flows powerfully and freely. We are alchemists with sound and our songs open the environments to be cleansed and filled with the love and light of God. We are here to transform environments from places of illness, to places of sacred connection to the light. We are able to transform the energies of illness and sickness to love, with sound. We have a wonderful gift with sound and vibration and are always happy when we are allowed to create sound for transformation and alchemy. We ask our parents to support us to play with sound and music in a free way so we can be free with this. We do not wish to have a structure within music, binding our sound. We wish to be able to channel it freely for transformation of the energy within all spaces. We ask that our feelings be honoured also as we are deeply sensitive to the environmental energies, and if there is sadness or illness in the land or in people or animals, then we immediately feel it and this draws us to wish to sound to assist the sadness or illness to be transformed and freed."

The Blue Rose Children benefit from quiet times and soft loving experiences with other children or adults as they are aware of energy deeply and feel when deep wounding is present in the environment. They often wish to sound for hours and are very connected to music because of this. They are each drawn to their own instruments for creating music and their own sacred sound experience. This is unique to each of them as they explore sound and music through their lives. Their gift to transform spaces with sound and assist the transformation of people with sound is immense and profound, and will be their life endeavour and exploration. The Blue Rose is a divine instrument of love and light, offered by many Ascended Masters to souls or areas where there is deep grief or illness. The Blue Rose is a sacred medicine rose and these new children each carry this rose in their heart. The Blue Rose may be called forth if you are ill or experience deep grief, to lift these energies from you.

The White Crystal Children (The 6th largest pod of crystal children)

“We are the White Crystal Children and we are very happy children. Our light is white crystal light and this is a very protective white light. As we hold this light, we often are protectors for others when they are in potential danger or trouble. We are deeply connected to the large trees and are also protectors for these trees and their families. We often feel them if they are being killed unnecessarily and when they need energy. Our energy is connected to the trees very powerfully. We naturally transmit white crystal light to those in need of protection without needing to focus deeply. We are grounded in white light so we make strong decisions in relation to how we use our energy. Each one of us has their own unique way of transmitting white crystal light, and it is this gift that makes each of us divine instruments for God’s protection. We are happy as we are always protected with our white crystal light and shielded from fears. We ask our parents to trust us fully even though we often act more maturely than others our age, and for them to truly know that we do have the gifts God gave us to protect others in a special way. We are not overprotective as our light guides us clearly on when and how to protect another with our light.”

The White Crystal Children are guardians for humanity and are deeply connected to other guardians such as the older trees or archangels of the Earth. Their role as a guardian creates them to be watchful of other beings and careful in their nature. Their carefulness is not created through fear, but through higher awareness that they sense through their energy field. They have a natural power to heal through their hands, with light, as they carry the white light within them strongly. They have particular gifts also with activating the grids of the Earth as their crystal energy creates this powerfully. They hold deep respect for all living things and through their life have chosen to care for all living beings. They are natural educators and activators of this respect for all life on Earth, because of this gift.

“We are the Pink Crystal Children and we are here on Earth to bring assistance to all beings to unite as one. Our gift is with unity consciousness and assisting all to open themselves to the oneness. Our difficulty is that we often live inside ourselves and find it difficult to come outside to be in the outside world. We have an inner world of love that we often travel to, to receive love from if we do not receive it in the outside world. We are made from a special frequency of love that is closest to the pink crystals of Earth. These pink crystals transmit love throughout the physical earth and assist us to ground on Earth. We are not always able to ground as our frequency is so high and we are not always happy to live in a human body when it is filled with density or emotions, repressed from other lives. We are very connected to the ancestors of the Earth and the angels of the Earth yet when we do not feel love, we become very lost and find it difficult to be on Earth. We ask that our parents gift us pink crystals and allow us to speak of the oneness and unity of all beings, and not educate us to be fearful. It is the fear that affects us mostly to withdraw from the outer reality and go to our inner world of love. If we are supported, we will teach about love and unity and assist all to experience the oneness of God.”

The Pink Crystal Children are very delicate in their nature and are one of the most delicate soul pods of the 77 soul pods. The soul of a pink crystal child has known deep oneness with the love grids of the universe and due to this, seeks this oneness deeply when embodied on Earth. Due to the delicate nature of these souls and their sensitivity to vibration, the children need clear direction and assistance in raising their life force or the vibration of their body with clean foods, non-fearful thoughts and clean water. If their bodies and minds are not holding density, these children flourish and naturally bring their gifts of opening others to unity consciousness, to all beings.

The Silver Children

“We are the Silver Children and we are a kindred soul pod to the Pink Crystal Children. We also have a gift with unity consciousness and it is to assist all to receive this love and consciousness. We are able to assist beings to learn to receive again from God/dess directly in order to hold their power of connection with God, and to let go of any hierarchy or any other being that may have been a bridge for this. We are sentients and are able to feel over long distances, all that is occurring in neighbourhoods etc. We do not take on negative feelings but are able to sense them so we can transmit the silver ray to all souls who need to open their receptivity, so they may feel again. We are able to feel across the oceans to other lands, and sense any occurrence with a large group of souls or with the land. We are able to powerfully receive divine energy and then share this with others if they are willing to open their receptivity and feminine energy. We are here on Earth to help all souls embrace their feminine energy, their feelings, and bring balance to the honouring of the sacred feminine on Earth. We are also here to assist all mothers on Earth to heal their hearts and be receptive again to love. We hold a protective energy for all mothers, and are here to see that they are cared for and respected and honoured with love.”

The Silver Children are able to sense across very long distances, and support other souls to open their inner nature to their ability to heal any old feelings and blocked passageways of emotions. These children are natural emotional counsellors as they are always aware of the emotions of others and feel inspired to help others with the flow of their emotions. They have a strong ability to direct others in the opening of their hearts and living their truth, as long as their feminine power is respected and supported to speak its truth. These children ask that feelings be honoured and that all be allowed to speak about their feelings and be supported with the acceptance and transformation of these.

The Fifth Wave of the New Children

by Qala Sri'ama & The Emissaries of the New Children

Blessings dear ones, we come as a group of Christ Emissaries to introduce the fifth wave of the new children to you. Sananda, Kuthumi and Babaji support each of you as you receive a connection to the frequency of this sacred group of souls. As you open to this, the Christ heart of your own divine presence will begin to merge with you as we introduce the first 11 soul pods of the 33 soul pods of the Christ Children to you. These first 11 pods of new children are birthed on the fifth wave of ascension. You may call on this fifth wave to flood through you to assist your journey of integration of all energies you receive through your ascension. As you breathe in deeply, the angels and Christ Masters will gently step forward to you to assist you to open to, and receive the divine frequency these children bring to Earth for you.

The Christ Light Children

The Christ Light children are unique in that they carry the codes of the Christ for all beings to assist all in the evolution of awakening the Christ light and Christ consciousness from within. The fifth wave of the new children are Christ light healers, beloveds. Each one of the 11 pods within this wave are Christ children, with powers of Christ Light healing and the abilities to offer a complete regeneration of the energy body. They are the healers of the mind, body and soul and have come to Earth to bring healing energy forth into the new sciences, the services of health and medicine and into the education centers. They carry a vitality that is their unique frequency. This vitality allows them to regenerate energetically. Others often need to rely on their energetic connection to plants and animals and nature for energetic renewal. These children have the ability to regenerate their energy through the healing abilities they hold through their natural vibrational connection to the Great Central Sun. Beloveds, these children often have difficulties with life experience if their environments are energetically unhealthy. This creates the new children of the 5th wave to partially go to sleep until their environments are filled with prana and a heightening of healing energies. They respond to sound and healing light and are extremely inquisitive souls in regards to energy and how energy flows or does not flow. They are each able to heal the energy bodies of souls with their ability to channel the regenerative light. They each carry the power to heal with the Christ light that Jesus Christ offered to many on Earth. This ancient science which is also known as faith healing is the basis of all healing that each of these children hold for all beings on Earth.

I share a message and an understanding from each of the 11 pods that travel on the 5th wave of new children birthing on Earth, so that each of you may receive from your children or your friend's children, connection to these waves and soul pods of children. As you breathe in now, the 5th Wave of the New Children begin to transmit their love to you and introduce themselves to you. May you enjoy your encounters with them and learn to receive their gifts of assistance as you meet them.

The Dove Children

"I am a Dove child and as one of the soul pods of the fifth wave of the new children, I bring to you the understanding of our hearts. We hold a gift of unity consciousness for humanity and it is our natural vibration that links souls in group consciousness. We often attract others to us, as we are natural links to bringing humanity together through unity consciousness. We offer the understandings to all so they may experience the oneness with each other. Our field of expertise with the energy body is the unified field, and the opening of all beings' energy bodies to regenerate through connection to the unified field. We are not scientists, yet the science of energy is held by us. We hold humanity in our hearts and although we have lessons with love, we carry a deep peace with us to support all others to also find peace within their hearts."

The Dove children hold the ki (light) codes to rainbow healing - a fifth dimensional healing energy for assisting groups that allows all beings to find their true place in organizations or groups. They hold the abilities that support human society to build communities and groups based on trust. They create this through the healing light frequency of the rainbow energy where all are supported to find their place in a group or organization through this rainbow connection. The rainbow energy is very important to Dove children and if it is in their environment, the children will grow to open their gifts with love. If the Dove children are placed in environments where the natural flow of rainbow energy is contracted or controlled, they will avoid anchoring in their bodies and live only partially connected to their bodies until they find the rainbow stream of energy on Earth to ground their gifts and soul energy with love. If you have a Dove child, the harmonics of music is one connection to the rainbow frequency as it carries a 7 chakra connection. These children need this 7 chakra attunement in their environments as their chakras need to be supported by the rainbow frequency. Each of these children is a natural healer and their gifts are primarily aligned to healing groups and organizations.

The Arcturian Children

"I come as an Arcturian child to you and share that we hold the keys of the lightbody and of raising the consciousness for humanity. We have an ancient gift with speaking what is needed, to assist another to know that they are light and that they are able to create with their light. We are healers of the lightbody and also have the gift to build other energy bodies such as bodies of light that co-create in group consciousness. We anchor new energy to raise humanity's consciousness. We bring a new awareness of energy and the science of free energy to humanity. Our work with free energy is to offer humanity alternative resources for their sources of energy. We bring forth these understandings for the birth of a new science of energy resource on Earth. We each need assistance to offer this to humanity and ask that humanity begin to believe that the God stream consciousness is unlimited and holds all potential to create a new resource of energy for all beings to be supported and all to be received in harmony with the Earth kingdoms."

The Arcturian children have an immense energy field and have the power to attune to others all around the world through the antennae like filaments of their energy body. This creates them to be aware of all energy, long distance as well as in synchronicity to their chosen focus of energy. It is their ability to give free energy to others through no effort or loss of their own energy, that allows their consciousness to also receive blueprints from other children easily. We share that all children have gifts and that the Arcturian children, through their gifting of free energy to other children, are gifted back from these children, the imprints of their gifts. The Arcturian children have awareness of the gifts of these other children and use the imprints they receive back to assist others. In this way, the Arcturian children receive the gifts of other new children and simply use these when they are needed and then return the imprints of these gifts through their extensive network of energy filaments. They also have a power to know what is able to occur through the energy body matrix of another being and what is not possible as there may not be the resource of energy. They can scan the resources another being holds within and guide a being to know what can be created through this energy resource in accordance to divine law and in accordance to the energetic resource held by this being's energy body. The Arcturian children need to receive divine assistance with their abilities in communication as they often have difficulty with the earth languages as there are a limited number of words on Earth describing the energy system. These children's consciousness is focussed on the energy matrix and their natural communication occurs through their energy matrix. Offering them a language of symbols (letters of the alphabet) that have no meaning in regards to energy, often leaves them dumbfounded as to why these symbols have no meaning on an energy level. The alphabets of the earth originally held meaning with energy and through the translations of many generations, these meanings have been lost and it is for this reason that the Arcturian children cannot easily respond to languages that have symbols with no energetic meaning or frequency held by them.

The Elf Children

"I come as an Elf child to you and share that our light is focussed upon the inner dwelling of self and the life experience within the inner worlds. We are guides for all others to the spirit world. Our abilities are to see and hear spirit so we are a bridge for all others who have lost their ability to be touched by spirit. We are guides for all souls to the inner world, and are bridges for all souls on their journey into the spirit world. We are quiet in nature and feel most comfortable in nature with the earth spirits. Our power is communication with the earth spirits through the heart and through our sensory bodies. We have only one thing to ask of humanity and that is to accept our guidance as spiritual guardians. We share that spiritual guardianship comes in all forms, and our pod, as elf children are the spiritual guardians of the new children of Earth. We often are mistaken for ancestors as we carry an energy of regeneration and healing that is as powerful as the ancestors. We are not ancestors of the Earth but each one of us has been connected to the star seeding of the Earth. We carry the stories of star seeding and hold the power to seed humanity's consciousness with the gentleness of the earth spirit and the rainbow bridge connection to the spirit world. We are here to take all beings on inner journeys to meet the spirit world so they may release their fears of the spirit world of Earth and connect to this sacred world where their power lives."

The Elf children are emissaries with unique gifts as bridges for the spirit world. Their messages come from within, as all elf children have direct connection through their hearts to the spirit world. They are natural mediums for spirit with the heart intention to assist all beings to make an easy and graceful transition into the spirit world and the after life. They each carry the power of healing that comes from their direct contact with the spirit world and many of them have gifts as light surgeons, and spiritual healers of either the mind, heart, soul, body, earth or spirit. They often travel into the inner worlds of spirit to assist souls in their transition and offer healing to souls during these times. As they do this, these children appear to be daydreaming or in another world and we ask each of you to be aware that they are in contact with the spirit world. Each of these children ask that they be allowed to hold this contact without interruption, as often when their parents interrupt their connection to the spirit world, they are unable to complete the transition of the healing energy they were sharing with another, who is either leaving their body or birthing into a new body. As doorway keepers, they support souls on their journeys and if they are blocked in doing this, they often find it difficult to be happy. Their happiness and fulfillment comes from bridging the physical and spiritual world and they feel trapped if they are pressured or forced to only identify with the physical world. When this occurs, they lose their own spirit connection and deep depression occurs.

The Lakura Children

"I come to you as a Lakura child and share that we hold the love and light to support all beings to meet the Divine Mother energy in life. We are Divine Mother emissaries that support all beings to make a clear connection to the mother frequency of nurturance and divine sustenance. Our path is one with the Divine Mother, directed by this inner force of love and with the intention to support all to be nurtured. We naturally nurture all as this is part of our inner nature and as we nurture others, the Mother nurtures us. We often find ourselves with those who need the most nurturing in life as the mother force guides us to be of the highest assistance to those who are under nurtured as souls. The nurturing of all souls is our heart dreaming and we hold a vision of the world on Earth, with all souls nurtured in their heart dreaming. Our hearts link together to hold all beings to be supported to allow the mother frequency to support and nurture them in life and to let go of the old patterns of not receiving nurturance in life. We hold this as a group consciousness for humanity and come to Earth to bring the seeds of a new nurturing energy. We are guided to plant these in all forms of structure and organization on Earth, and to support humanity to include nurturance in their lifestyles and in conjunction with their life choices and changing consciousness."

The Lakura children are child mothers who will always place the considerations of others, equal in consideration to themselves. It is their most powerful gift, to always hold all beings equal to themselves. As channels for the mother frequency, they nurture easily and do not use any of their personal energy when they nurture others. They draw on their power to heal and open their channel to the natural frequency of Divine Mother from the energy field of Earth, and draw this loving force around another who needs this loving force. This act is as natural as breathing to them, and in no way can be separated or stopped. All parents of Lakura children are asked to accept their children's gifts of nurturance and to support this, so their children may also be nurtured. When a Lakura child is asked to not nurture others, their own connection to nurturance is blocked and these children become full of grief and have no sense of direction in life. Their gifts of nurturance are their guides to all of their life force and if this gift is not encouraged with love, a part of this child begins to die inside. The Lakura children have an intimate connection to the butterfly kingdom and hold the ability to communicate with the butterflies. It is the butterflies that bring messages from the Divine Mother. The Lakura children are natural healers of the emotional body and hold all the keys needed to allow the emotional body to be free.

The Vermillion Children

"I come as a Vermillion child. We are also known for our connection to the diamonds on the Earth. These diamonds and rivers of diamond light that run through the body of humanity and the body of Earth, are our energy connection to humanity and Mother Earth. This diamond pathway of liquid light intelligence is our field of expertise with energy. We are keepers of the diamond pathways and hold the ability to attune and open all beings' diamond pathways. We have a clear connection to the divine qualities of God consciousness and hold a knowing of the qualities that have been embodied by a soul. We are aware of that which has truly been learnt and that which is only held as a concept through the mental body. We are able to guide all souls to truly change their consciousness by initiating themselves as souls to the divine qualities of God consciousness. We keep and care for the invisible rays and diamond pathways that allow the divine qualities of God consciousness to flow through a soul easily. Our greatest gift is our ability to transcend the old consciousness and assist all beings to liberate their consciousness."

The Vermillion children hold the energy connection for all beings' initiations of enlightenment and the embodiment of God consciousness. They are natural healers of the Christ light that carry frequency for all to transform from their old initiations in life and leap in consciousness to embody a completely new consciousness through every aspect of their life. All Vermillion children have a special touch and when they place their hands out to channel light, healing occurs instantly within the energy body and this frees up a being to be able to leap in dimensional consciousness almost instantly. We ask that all of these children be supported to give frequency to others who need this frequency through their hands and touch. If a Vermillion child is not supported to touch others and share this frequency with an attitude of light, they often begin to shut this gift down due to a belief that others do not need it. If they shut this gift down, they may also hold the belief that others do not need them and they have nothing of worth to give to society on Earth. Their touch is fundamental to their ability to experience their hearts open, in freedom on Earth.

The Sapphire Children

"I come as a Sapphire child and share that we are also quiet inside. We are healers, yet we do not speak of our gifts as healing as they are different from the gifts that humanity are aware of as healing. We are inventors of new forms of healing that involves the science of energy and the Pleiadian love and light frequencies. We are not on Earth to focus on healing, but to support all beings to own their own power as healers of themselves. Our gifts are based on a higher awareness of the gifts of healing that others may awaken to heal themselves. The sapphire consciousness is a consciousness of radiance and our role with all beings is to support them to experience their inner and outer radiance. It is through the empowerments of a soul's own inner force and power of transformative healing, that the radiance is reclaimed. We bring delights and gifts to all who wish to heal all in their life and act as guides to all who choose to walk their path with their inner power to change. We carry a motivational confidence and each of us will learn to speak to others so as to encourage others to be empowered in a special way, allowing their inner radiance to be reclaimed. Empowerment that suits each soul in their own special way is that which we are here to support and encourage in other being's lives. We accept all paths and all being's ways as equal, and hold a special gift that may support each being to find their radiance within."

The Sapphire children are divine emissaries for the law of divinity and as emissaries, hold and anchor this law on Earth for all beings. Their ability to see or honour the divinity within all beings allows their unique frequency to be received by all beings including those who may be shut down energetically or are in pain emotionally, mentally, spiritually or physically. They carry the codes of divinity and offer energy to others in accordance to the situation a being is experiencing. They are co-creative in business, as well as within the world of healing and transformation. An inner clarity will birth through each of these children if they are recognised as divine in life. If they are criticised or abused with negative energy, they will close down their gift to protect their radiant heart. Each one of these children are keepers of the radiant heart and are able to support a soul to re-open their heart after closing it due to negative experiences. Their speciality in healing the energy body is with opening the heart or healing the wounded heart and with the activation of the radiant jewel within one's heart, one's divinity. As these children develop, they ask to be seen and recognised as a divine child. This is all they need to open their gifts in this life.

The Lama (Emerald & Green) Children

"I come as a Lama child and I share that we hold the energy of the portals of the Earth with our hearts and breath. Breath is our power ally, and we are earth guides to humanity's true connection to the breath of light. It is the light within each breath that we come to assist humanity to embrace and to support humanity to embrace the light through their first in breath with every new birthing. We are here to bring new forms of birthing to Earth. We speak of children birthing and also all new creations that are to be birthed on Earth. Within every new birth or creation, the light is either present in the beginning of this journey or it is not fully present. Our gifts are to support humanity to connect to the light within each first breath of every project and every new child's birth. Our gifts with humanity's energy body are related to the light cord of each new child or new project anchoring into the earth. We are here to hold the energy as directors of this light energy until humanity is educated about energy and they are able to take responsibility for the anchoring of the light energy with each new birth."

The Lama children are souls that carry a liquid green and emerald light within them. It is this light that grounds the light cord of a new soul on Earth or any new creation or project on Earth. The Lamas of Tibet have a deep connection to these children and often act as spiritual teachers to these children on the inner planes until they are 14 years old and each of these children has developed their gifts more deeply in their earth life. Each of the children is able to harness large amounts of energy for humanity's healing as a collective or for Earth healing. They hold no focus on individual souls, as they are here to assist the collective of all souls within humanity to ground their light through their breath. They are here for group contact and to support group projects to manifest with the light of God/dess. Each of these children asks for only one thing as assistance, and that is to receive support with their inner guidance. They often have difficulty relating to being a personality as their consciousness is a group consciousness and they are not used to being individual as a state of consciousness. Therefore their inner guidance for themselves is not always easily accessed due to their difficulty in receiving guidance for their individual nature as a being on Earth. To assist them, all parents and guardians can gently teach them that it is appropriate to receive energy and guidance directly from their hearts for the benefit of themselves.

The Topaz Children

"I come as a Topaz child and share that we are activators of the energy body and the consciousness of all souls. We are here to open all beings to their clear light frequency and the flow of this celestial light. The joy of being alive on Earth is met through celestial energies flowing through the mind, heart, soul, body and spirit of a being on Earth. We are clairaudient with all beings and are able to hear their calls to receive healing and opening to their joyful consciousness and the clear light frequency of their soul. Our topaz frequency naturally clears the energy dampeners that a soul may hold within them, that may create a partial blockage to their clear light frequency. We also hold a crystalline consciousness similar to the crystal children. This allows us to open our consciousness and powerfully manifest through our thoughts. As we hold this gift, we do request that we receive education on how to direct our thoughts positively at all times otherwise we may manifest a negative reality. We also ask that our parents and teachers embrace their thoughts and learn how to direct them for we learn through direct experience by being with our parents and our guardians and learning how their energy works."

The Topaz children are facilitators for the enlivening of the soul through the activation and clear flow of a soul's clear light frequency. They often have difficulty with communicating clearly if they have not received the support of their parent's clear light frequency. The Topaz children see the reflection and oneness with all and identify themselves through the connection of their hearts to their parents and if this heart connection is not clear and flowing with love, the Topaz children soon become deeply affected and find themselves with difficulties in communicating clearly. This is due to the repression of energy and if a Topaz child represses energy, this locks the chakras of communication, instantly creating either difficulty in breathing, speaking or with communication. We are asking all parents of the Topaz children to teach their children to always express their feelings and thoughts as when these are repressed, they powerfully block the child's development, more so than other children in this regard.

The Blue Children

"I come as a Blue child and share that we are keepers of the blue ray. We are deeply connected to the new technologies birthing on Earth and to the advancement of consciousness through the assistance of new technologies. We are extremely multidimensional and often unable to be in groups due to our multidimensional awareness and sometimes we have difficulties integrating energies we receive through some structured forms or groups. We have a passion for advancing our consciousness yet our energies, when misdirected, often hold us back from being able to achieve our goals. We need assistance with opening our hearts to the world as our multidimensional awareness sometimes creates us to close and focus only on ourselves. The feelings and thoughts are often so complex that when we are in structured groups that do not support us, we are unable to direct our energy clearly and we often direct it in several directions at once due to a confusion we experience through a non-grounding of our multidimensional awareness. We are here on Earth to bring new technologies based on clean energy to the Earth, and to support the advancement of consciousness through clean energy resources and technologies that do not harm the Earth. The blue ray when activated, opens our gifts of new ways of working with energy for healing and creation. We are asking for assistance with integrating our multidimensional awareness, as when we are unable to integrate these gifts, we often close down to society and the world and specifically to any structured groups we have been participating in such as schools or group activities we chose to be involved in. We ask for our parents and guardians to teach us how to live in the world with love and be in group with our multidimensional awareness open to all energies.”

The Blue children hold the connection to the multiuniverse for all new children and anchor the blue ray on Earth. It is of primary importance that they are supported to speak their truth for if they become patterned in dishonest behaviour, they lose their connection to their hearts and begin to live life and make choices based on an illusionary reality that is not based on their open heart. Each new Blue child birthed on Earth, assists in the cleansing of the oceans and waterways as each Blue child carries a unique frequency that naturally cleanses the waterways. They each hold a deep connection to water and all water beings. If they are living their truth, they will want to be in the water or near the water as much as possible to create balance within their energies. If they have closed their heart and are not living their truth, they may hold an avoidance of the water due to a fear of the power that water holds and the fear of change that water brings when it cleanses energy from a soul. All Blue children hold a deep purpose within and are led by this purpose encoded within them through the blue ray of truth. It is not until each Blue ray child soul chooses to live their truth 100% that they are able to activate and know their purpose. Their purpose is so deeply encoded, that it is felt within by the Blue ray child and this may create anger and frustration if this child is not aligned to their heart. All parents and teachers of Blue children are asked to support them to become aware of their feelings, as sometimes they have difficulty in truly contacting their feelings due to the intensity of the blue energy.

The Amber Children

“I come as an Amber child and share that we are deeply connected to the trees and ancient pathways of lava on the Earth. We hold healing gifts with the skeletal and muscular system of the human body and come to Earth to move powerfully within the physical body. It is the development of the power within the physical body that we are focussed on, as we feel ourselves through the power of the body. Our energy has the most potent synergy with the physical plane when the body is empowered with great flexibility, strength and the powers of endurance and discipline. We hold the ability to strengthen the physical body and guide all to open their physical body to receive empowerment and strength through its connection to Mother Earth. The Earth spirit speaks to us and our greatest gift is our ability to see the flow of the earth current through the body and where the body needs to receive the earth current. We are aware of humanity’s need to open their bodies to the Earth current and offer our gifts in healing, and our connection to divine energy to assist this. We only ask that we be listened to as we are often mistaken for other children and our gifts are not always fully received by humanity as the earth current’s connection to the physical body is only just being explored by humanity.”

The Amber children not only carry the power source of Earth and the earth current as their natural energy connection, but they also hold the awareness of how the earth current can heal all within the physical body and regenerate all systems of the body to flow with life force and vitality and power. As each being identifies with their own body and its ability to flow with life force, they are able to recognise the need for a greater flow of earth energy within the cells to allow the regeneration of every cell. It is the Amber children that carry the frequency to open the cells of the physical body to the earth current if they have become polarised and closed to energy. They invite you to receive from them, the healing of your cells and an opening to the earth current again. As you breathe in, call to them to gift this healing to you. They ask humanity to be aware of the cells and how every thought and feeling and action affects the field of all cells of the body and either creates the cell to flow with light or to stagnate with negativity or fear consciousness. They ask humanity to become clearer on a cellular level by choosing not to be negative in their outlook and to choose to see the most positive outcome in any situation in life.

The Golden Celestial Children

"I come as an Golden Celestial child and share that we are carrying the celestial consciousness which ignites the inner joy in all beings to open, and to be expressed. We are clairsentient and feel all forms of energy within our environment or within any beings who are in our environment. We carry the celestial energies that are a feminine light from the celestial realms of the heavens. All beings have wings in the celestial realms so we have a deep connection to all winged beings on the earth such as the birds and the angels. We are fifth dimensional healers of the energy body and our focus is specific to the chakras and the ignition of the light within each chakra. We are happiest when we are creating joy and synergy with others and we are unable to relate to beings who are experiencing deep disharmony. When we are with them, it feels like they are from another world that we have not lived on, as we have no experience of the disharmony they seem to be affected by. This sometimes affects us to close down our energy, as we need the understanding of what these beings are feeling to be able to share our frequency with them to bring out more of their joy. We ask all of our parents to show us how to understand and be compassionate to those in situations we have not experienced. We are here to create joy and to develop our compassion through new understandings of humanity's energy."

The Golden Celestial children are very light and free in their consciousness. They surf on the higher waves of energy that humanity shares. They have the ability to lift all beings out of their tensions and small stresses through their lightness and positive focus. They have little understanding of beings that have experienced abuse or those with very heavy energies. They tend to skirt around beings with heavier energies due to their lack of resonance with heavier consciousness that is made from trauma or deep fears. In this way, although they are here to embrace unconditional love of all beings and be open to all beings, they need assistance in relating to those on Earth who have no joy and have never experienced joy in life. They come from a world of joy where all beings are joyous, so their light, free expression of joy is powerfully healing to all. To truly open these gifts, they need assistance with the embrace of all beings, even those who have no joy. The Golden Celestial children are connected to the Crystal children and share similar gifts with awakening the minds and hearts of all to the New Age and to a new consciousness based on unconditional love and soul freedom.

Beloveds, the first five soul pods (Dove, Arcturian, Elf, Lakura and Vermillion Children) are also keepers of the Holy Grail and are able to connect to this sacred healing vessel (the cup of the Christ) to attune beings to their path as a Christ Child. The next three soul pods (Sapphire, Lama and Topaz Children) also share the gifts of vision and a unique ability to see probabilities or the highest potential possibilities in accordance to the divine laws in life. The last three soul pods (Blue, Amber and Golden Celestial Children) share the ability to support all souls to anchor in the body and open to their God stream or God consciousness through the chakras and energy body. Each of the last three soul pods also have a deep connection to the flames of the holy spirit and as they grow older, and if they open their spiritual paths deeply, they hold the gifts to activate others on their spiritual paths with these sacred flames of Godhead.

These 11 soul pods of the fifth wave of the new children, share a journey of embracing the light within all and assisting all to open to their Christ light within and to their power of healing themselves. Each one of them knows within that all souls hold the power to heal themselves, and some of these souls are also gifted in offering assistance with the healing of another. As you complete reading this article, you may wish to invite some of these sacred Christ light healers to bless you with a healing. Lie down and call to only one of the soul pods and ask them to share their healing frequency with you in divine order for the highest potential healing and love experience.

The Sixth Wave of the New Children

The Divine Mother through Qala Sri'ama Phoenix

An amazing grace anchors with each of the souls of the Sixth Wave of the New Children as each of these children carry the codes of divine grace with them to all beings on Earth. This allows them to soften and cushion all situations with divine grace, beloveds. Their very presence brings grace to all others who are with them. These children are Christ children birthed on the 6th Wave of Ascension and each one of them is deeply connected to the Divine Mother and they carry various qualities of Christ Consciousness through their feminine stream of consciousness and their connection to the Divine Mother. They are soft, nurturing and carry the true energy of mothering for all beings.

The Divine Mother offers us understanding of each of the 11 pods of the 6th Wave of New Children, and understandings of the rays of grace and elixirs of grace as she introduces each of the soul pods of the new children to us. May you be blessed by visitations of these children and their gifts, as you receive this connection to each of the pods through the Divine Mother. May they support you to recognize them if you meet them physically, and may your inner contact with the souls of all children grow through this divine offering.

Beloveds, know that the souls of all children are calling for us to recognize them truly, and open new levels of communication with them through connection to them as souls rather than as little people. They ask each of us to recognize the wisdom and immense assistance they may carry for us energetically, and the new approach they may bring to life that may lift us from any conditioned ways of being, any limited forms of thinking or limitations to our dreamings, or the application of our actions towards our heart dreams.

They ask us not to try to teach them to stop dreaming for it is the very thing that shuts down their hearts and closes or binds their gifts and consciousness. They ask us to dream with them again and to allow ourselves to recognize that childlike dreaming is the very essence of our innocence and a higher virtue offered to us by our God Presence. They share with us that our dreaming is a form of contact with the spiritual planes and when we close it down we trap our consciousness in the physical, emotional or mental planes and lose our conscious contact with our Spirit and Divine Presence and the Great Mystery of Life.

The Christ Children Of Grace

The Sixth Wave of the New Children carry the codes of divine Grace that are able to assist all beings in the evolution of awakening their Christ consciousness on Earth. The following 11 pods of new children are also known as The Christ Children of Grace due to the energetic influence of grace they have on other beings in their energetic field of influence. As they grow older and open more to the light of their Divine Presence, each of these children have the gift of being able to expand their energy bodies to be very large and to fill whole environments and communities with the divine energy of grace, bringing peace, stillness and tranquility and love into the field of all beings within this environment or community. They have been called to Earth and bring their peacemaking gifts with them through the divine blessings of the grace they carry as souls. May you enjoy connecting with them, as the Divine Mother and groups of the new children from the spiritual planes now begin to focus their love on you as you receive an introduction to each one of the 11 pods of souls that form the soul family as the Christ Children of Grace.

The Pink Rose Children

Blessings come to you dear heart as the Pink Rose Children begin to fill your heart with pink roses from the spirit world. The roses soften your energy to allow love to flow, even through all energies of density. The pink rose energy dissolves dense energy to allow the innocence to return to the heart of a being if their heart has been filled with energies of density. Beloved hearts, these children know only love and are innocent to the ways of the world and the world's harsher energies. Their innocence is so pure they are unable to understand how humans hurt each other, hurt animals and other beings. They are unable to fathom this within their minds as children, and tend to react deeply to others that do this. They do not react with anger or judgment but they feel the pain that is created by hurtful actions and react with deep tears and shame. Beloveds, know these children's greatest gift is their pure love and innocence that cannot be broken. Even after being in the presence of humans that hurt others, and witnessing it and reacting to it, they are unable to hold a view that the being they witnessed harming another will always harm again. They are unable to judge humanity and through this beloveds, it is the Pink Rose children that hold full faith in humanity. When they react, their tears release the pain they experience through witnessing negative situations and instead of judging that being, they will hold the faith in all beings and support and nurture all beings to choose their most innocent path in life no matter what they have done or been involved in throughout their life. They are a comfort to all who are unbefriended and they are able to make friends with all beings through their innocence. Know beloveds, their love and purity makes it difficult for others to make them a target for hurtful behavior. They are here to support all beings with love through the cushioning of the pink rose energy they carry, and to bring grace to those who have been judged and disregarded by others in life. They are natural consoling angels who allow all beings to feel loved and nurtured. Embrace them as they come to you and bring their love through you now.

We are the Pink Rose children and our gift is to always be able to see and connect to the genuine heart within all beings. We carry this gift for humanity and offer this gift with love to you, as we now surround you. We hold the gift of bringing back connection for a being to their genuine self, through holding faith and non-judgment for them and holding their hearts open to their choice that they may live in accordance to their genuine heart. We are aware that God created all souls equally and that although souls become lost and afraid and other negative energies may affect them, they are still always a child of God on the path of merger with God. Our hearts hold the pink ray and we are able to infuse all beings with this ray when we sit with them in unconditional love as a support to them. This fulfills our heart and is our sacred gift. It fulfills us to experience another being comforted by the Divine Mother's love for them. We ask our parents and friends and all of humanity to accept us as we are and ask that you not try to create us to be judgmental or fearful of others who appear damaged, or try to teach us that our innocence and love is not a sensible act and we are being silly. We are grateful for who we are and the gifts we carry through our innocence.

The Aquamarine Children

The Aquamarine Children hold an amazing clear view of life through the love and aquamarine energy held within their soul frequency. Beloveds, these children gather around you now to support you to open to a new perspective in life with clarity, for this is their gift of aquamarine energy. It raises the awareness of a being to be able to clearly see the possibility of a new outlook. This new outlook is not based on competition or comparison but is based on all beings receiving the highest for themselves, and all beings experiencing a divine outcome rather than a loss to their beings. Their divine grace flows through their ability to share a new view, with every being receiving a winning experience, and through the potential choices that may be made to create all beings to be supported, rather than only thyself or one being receiving a highest potential outcome. The Aquamarine children are birthing on Earth to question your outdated beliefs that do not serve humanity, and specifically those beliefs that separate you or isolate you from others. They have strong personalities that will gently soothe and nurture you as a soul yet simultaneously open your mind to a new outlook, and question your old outlook that may not serve all souls. Beloveds, they are uninhibited with this form of confrontation as it is their natural way.

We are the Aquamarine Children and we ask for acceptance in our speech and intentions. We work deeply with our inner knowing and wish to share that we are the children in the classroom that question all that is occurring and do not stop asking the questions. We are the children that refuse to accept that it is just the way it is, and continue to question until another way is reviewed and offered as a solution to outcomes that do not raise all beings' vibrations. We are the anarchists amongst the group in all classrooms and although we are expected to question all, we are asking that we be accepted for the giftings we have for all beings. We are aware of another way that will serve all beings and we ask all of our parents, friends and teachers to recognize the gift we carry for all. We ask that we be acknowledged as souls who have come to bring grace to the path of change and transition. We are able to immediately sense if a choice will benefit all beings and we are unable to understand why humanity chooses a path that does not support all beings, if they are aware of an alternative path. Our greatest difficulty and pain is witnessing humanity make choices when they are aware of another path that brings all beings a higher form of service.

The Pleiadian Children

The Pleiadian Children come to Earth in large groups and bring the gifts of the art of remembrance to all souls. Beloveds, these children carry the grace in their hearts to be able to remind all other souls of who they are, and support them to connect to the centre of their heart. Each of these divine children carry the codes of remembrance and have chosen to emanate these to as many beings as possible on Earth once they incarnate on Earth. These children are sacred artists and it is through sound and art that they will share this gift. They carry the golden thread of inspiration for all beings to find their way in life and it is their Pleiadian energy that reminds all beings that it is safe to be alive and walk their path in this life. They carry the gift of love and are reminded each day that there is a special task that they are here for on Earth, and that every step is a step towards creating this task.

Each one of them are creative in their approach to their life task and each one is a keeper of understanding in relation to all souls' life tasks. They have the gift to help another soul find their path and remember that there is a special task they have come to Earth to fulfill. They hold the blessings from the Pleiades for all beings and it is this frequency that brings the grace of safety and security to all beings.

We are the Pleiadian children and it our destiny to assist as many people as possible on Earth find their way home to their heart. We are aware of whether a being is connected to their heart, or if they have had an experience in life to close down their connection to their heart, or even if this soul arrived on Earth with their heart already closed before their incarnation on Earth. Our greatest gift is the recognition of another beings' heart and their conscious connection to it and what it will take for them to grow into their heart rather than away from it. We carry this gift and wish to share our grace with all of humanity so they remember their truth and divinity. It is difficult for us to be with souls of humanity when they choose to move away from their heart continually. These ones who choose the self-destructive path are unable to be helped by us for they use their will to change their path. We are here to support all souls not to choose this path and to encourage all souls to walk the path of remembrance with us. We hold our hearts open to all beings yet when a soul chooses the self-destructive path three times consciously, we are only able to pray for them, as the grace we carry cannot support them to awaken. Our deepest heart wish is that all souls will awaken to the light within prior to choosing the self-destructive path, for we are aware of the depth of the self-inflicted pain that is created through this path of unconsciousness.

The Golden Rose Children

The Golden Rose Children hold the grace for all beings through their divine abilities to enhance the highest qualities of others rather than focus on that which all souls have difficulty with, or their ungraceful qualities. These souls are here to support and teach all souls that they do have higher qualities and gifts, and that grace can be created in their lives and their lives can flow with love through a simple focus on sharing these qualities with others, even if their other, more ungraceful qualities produce negative experiences for them. These children are aware that every soul carries a higher quality and it may be unexpressed due to other beings not believing that they are able to express their divine qualities of light. These children look for the higher quality in a soul, and focus their relationship on this aspect of the soul in sacred support of their expression of this quality in their life. Blessings of grace pour forth from these souls to any other soul who embraces their higher qualities of consciousness. It is the Golden Rose children that are able to lift a soul's consciousness into the light as they embrace this higher aspect of themselves with love and reclaim their higher qualities of Christ consciousness.

We are the Golden Rose children and we have no need to be anything in this world, but of service to others as they develop their Christ consciousness. We are playful and excited by the lifting of a soul into the light. We have come to Earth to support the many souls who are trying to find their way into the light again and have come to be loving supports to all beings to open to a higher expression of love with all others, and to those who are making a conscious choice to let go of their past behaviors that do not serve them and others. We hold the light for all in the process of transforming their oldest behavior patterns. You may call on us to support you if you are trying to let go of old behaviors that do not serve you. We are able to bring the grace to you that you need to allow this path to be easy, as the golden rose vibration we carry lifts all old behavioral patterns into the light and purifies them with the love of the Divine Mother's heart. We ask only one thing of humanity, that we may be seen as pure, for often we are seen and rejected by others who do not wish to recognize their negative behavior patterns and let go of them. We are often rejected by those who fear the light, and by those who fear the transformation of the old emotions, as it is our frequency that activates this fear within them. We ask our parents, family, friends and teachers who are stuck in old behavioral patterns, to not reject us because when they are in our presence, they are more aware of their old patternings and limitations than when they are not with us.

The Opal Children

The Opal Children are offering all of humanity a deep connection to their divine presence and spirit through holding the opal energy for all beings on Earth. It is the opal energy that allows a soul to receive the grace to know that their spirit is with them and they are not alone in this world. It is the opal frequency that ignites the soul to be aware of their spirit ever present with them, and to recognize they are supported by their Divine Presence - their enlightened self in life. These divine souls are bridges to the spirit world and have the gift to see and hear spirit in the presence of others. Often they receive messages of grace for those they are with, and know things about other beings that only their spirit is able to know about them. Their gift is not to be a spiritual guide but to be a connector for all souls to their spirit, and assist all souls who are alone in the world to know their spirit and divine presence is with them and caring for them. From birth, these children carry this gift of awareness of the spirit of all others they are with, and have the grace and energy to support a soul who is isolated and feels the loss of passion for life to reclaim their passion and direction again.

We are the Opal children and we carry the Christ awakens in our hearts. We are here to assist those that are to awaken the Christ consciousness within all beings and support them to truly know who they are. We are companions to these awakens and are to bring strength to them and hold the light for them. We are not awakens of the Christ consciousness but carry the compassion and love to support all beings that are awakening. We ask humanity to recognize that the children are also a part of the new society and age of awareness that is forming on Earth and we play an essential role in bringing the new energy to Earth that will lift the old consciousness that affects most adults in this world. We are asking all adults to recognize that there is a new consciousness and it is birthing through us as children and to let go of needing to lead us and instead, make a choice to step beside us and listen to us before trying to guide us. We share that our opal energy gives us the ability to know if the guidance we are offered is truly heart based or whether it comes from the old consciousness and energies of limitations. As Opal children we will question your guidance for us if it comes from the old consciousness and we often rebel when forced to do this anyway against our free will. We ask for the freedom to do what truly resonates to our hearts rather than what has always been done in the past.

The Venusian Children

The Venusian Children carry the sacred flame of divine union and female/male balance and hold this balance for all of humanity as humanity learns to bring love and honesty into their relationships in life. The grace of Christ consciousness is held through their Venusian frequency that balances male and female energy and unites the male and female energy of any being whose heart wishes to experience this. The Venusian children are here for fun and games based on the love vibration, for a divine exploration of relationship, and for the balancing of all energies that may be experienced within relationship, through love. These children balance the energies of any relationship just through their very presence and this occurs just by being in their sacred company due to their Venusian frequency. These children are here to create new relationships that are based on a higher frequency and a new consciousness, allowing all souls to be free in their expression and open to the explorations of divine union. They are future teachers of relationship and the union of male and female energies based on unconditional love.

We are the Venusian children and our intention on Earth is to explore relationship with an open heart and offer the codes of male and female balance to all who are in relationship. We invite our parents and our friends and family to recognize that we relate differently to other souls as we carry gifts and a grace within our energy that others do not carry. It is a golden light that balances the female and male energies that we carry and it also balances all male and female energies within all beings that connect deeply with us. We are able to share our gifts through a deep heart connection and ask that our parents be more open hearted when with us, so they may be activated with the energy we carry to balance their inner male and female energies. We share that what we hold energetically will create your relationships to change and will create all battle within and all battle of the sexes, to dissolve, and all anger to be released. Just through sitting with us and receiving our love and heart connection, your energies will be balanced within and all will be calmed and a new relationship will develop.

The Andromedan Children

The Andromedan Children are extremely playful and joyful in their connection to all other souls. Their natural resonance is to merge with all souls and as they do this, they bring the grace of a celestial love to all beings that offers all beings a reconnection to all that they may have shut down to, and closed their minds or consciousness to, that once brought them great joy. The grace these children hold for all beings beloved, is held within the Andromedan frequency of their souls and it is this divine energy that is a part of these children's soul makeup that allows a soul to feel supported and comfortable enough to open their consciousness again to the beauty and joy of specific experiences they may have chosen to shut down previously. These children carry specific codes to allow a being to accept their past and their past choices with non-judgment, and also simultaneously remember the joy they had in other lives or earlier as a child, that they may have had through opening to new divine encounters. These children are here to assist all beings to open their consciousness to new experiences that will release their joy from their hearts and to encourage all souls to follow the guidance from their hearts.

We are the Andromedan children and we are excited for all beings in opening their joy and highest potential to have joy within new experiences in their lives. We are deeply connected to the child aspect of all souls, and it is our unique frequency that supports the child aspect to begin to learn to fully trust again, that which will bring them joy. We offer it to you now and send our love to you, and as you receive it, the child within you becomes more peaceful and centered and more open to the new that may occur to you. We are keepers of the mystery and the joy that is held within the mystery of life. We wish to ask only to be honored and for our joyful intentions to be heard and not squashed by the voices of the adult within you. We ask you to listen to us and the truth we hold for you, that joy is possible and eventually will occur to you if you are willing to be more open to seeking joy and reclaiming your joy with love. We will assist you to find all lost joys again and reclaim these, and allow the old things that gave you joy to return easily to you again. This is our gift; let us share it with you by being with us and listening to us. We have gifts of sound to open the lost joys to be found again and this frequency will come through our voice or our songs to you to assist you to find these again.

The Sirian Children

The Sirian Children are very kind, considerate and friendly, yet they fear at times that they are not loved by humanity. They are unique as their minds see all multidimensionally and they see many angles of the same thing at the same time. They are unable to see life linearly as many other souls do, as they are born on Earth with their multidimensionality awakened in their minds, and they often experience life as a movie or a divine play they have chosen to live within and cannot take anything too seriously at any one time. They therefore have difficulty in having a standardized conversation about linear life, as they do not connect to their experiences linearly. This creates many of them to develop their minds and search for the answers to understanding life very early. They have a great natural ability to work with all forms of energy and make great students of energy, as this is the very basis of their multidimensional experience in life. The gifts they hold are with assisting other souls to connect to their multidimensionality and their ability to be flexible and see life through many angles and develop an evolution of their personal overview. They are able to share wisdom and the grace of their energy to open another soul's consciousness to their multidimensionality, when they wish to experience more than one view of life and open their mind to the many views and angles on life. They bring grace to that experience through their energy and therefore hold great gifts as teachers, for the expansion of a being's consciousness.

We are the Sirian children and we often feel out of place in this world and need grounding, as our multidimensional minds often take us on journeys out of this world and when we return we often are bored with our earth journey. This tends to create us to not fully understand the joy of the body so we need to be encouraged to exercise and play games in the body if we are to fully ground in our bodies. Our gifts are the awareness that there is more that we can see in life, and it is available to all of us if we choose to believe in more than what we can see. We are activators for others so they can open to more than they can see and trust in the mystery of life and the energy of their multidimensional self. We offer to all beings, the grace of Christ consciousness, specifically through our energy that raises another being's multidimensional awareness. Energy experiences occur to others who are with us quite often as our energy opens their consciousness to experience energy and the unseen mysteries with us. We just ask for all of humanity to understand us and help us ground in our bodies through fun forms of exercise, like games with our best buddies.

The Amethyst Children

The Amethyst Children are graced with the love and divine frequency that transforms all to love. Their energy and personalities are supportive to all beings that need to transform negativity with grace. They carry the codes for graceful transformation and all beings who are in their environments, are supported by their natural frequency. They are aware when another soul is deeply letting go or wishing to let go of negativity that is held in their energy body, and silently hold the energy for all souls in this experience within their communities. They are children that choose to wait for another soul rather than choose to walk on their own, as they truly enjoy the company and benefit highly from the company of other souls. It does not matter to them whether the other souls are happy, sad, peaceful, angry or in any other state of consciousness. They are just happy to be with other souls no matter what state their consciousness is in as they truly enjoy all soul's company, and their own frequency creates them to be unaffected by any soul's state of consciousness.

We are the Amethyst children and we share that we have violet bodies and we love humanity. We specifically love humanity and love to be with all human souls as they are transcending and transforming as a collective at this time. We have come to the Earth to specifically assist humanity in their transformation and bring grace to this. We have many things we wish to experience while we are here and every one of them involves contact with our fellow humanity. We choose not to be alone, not due to fear of this, but due to loving other soul's company. We ask our teachers, parents, friends and family only one thing, and that is to not force us to do things singularly or individually as we are group consciousness souls and we naturally connect and work in group with other souls. We flourish in the presence of the group and a part of our heart closes if we are forced to have no company or forced to create alone. Let us be in as many groups as possible for this is our nature, to connect with as many souls as possible.

The Lemurian Children

The Lemurian Children offer each soul on Earth the divine opportunity to embrace the feminine self with the highest potential love. The feminine self in all souls brings the qualities of our receptivity, beauty, compassion and acceptance of all that is, to one's soul. The Lemurian children hold the frequency for all souls to receive their feminine energy and to open their divine flow again, bringing these qualities back into each soul's life. They hold each soul in their hearts if they recognize the feminine energy is not fully flowing through a soul's heart. The Lemurian children are able to connect all souls to the Divine Mother again and to allow the love and beauty and compassion and receptivity to fill the soul and fill the heart of that soul. It is through another soul sitting in their presence with their heart open to these children, that a soul is able to receive the energy from a Lemurian child.

We are the Lemurian children and it our heartfelt dreaming to awaken the divine feminine in all souls again. We carry the grace for all souls so their connection to their feminine is filled again with ease and grace. We are here on Earth to open the passageway between the heart of all souls and the Goddess vibration that is held latent within all souls. Our hearts are filled with this vibration and when we share our heart's energy with other souls, they receive a remembrance of their own divine feminine connection. Our only wish or request of our parents, teachers and friends or family is to be honored for this gift. We ask to be accepted for holding this connection for all beings and ask that our feminine sensitivity be supported when the masculine energies are stronger in our environments as our feminine energies may feel unsupported.

The Rakuna Children

The Rakuna Children surround you now and invite you to receive from them now as they bring the grace of a divine, clear, bright and peaceful, tranquil mind to you through focusing their love on you. Each of these children love to shine and have very bright personalities. They hold the grace of peaceful personalities, and within their hearts are the codes and frequency that brings peace to all soul's personalities. As they focus on you, they offer you a large amount of their frequency as one of their gifts is to stabilize all soul's personalities and assist their personalities to be at peace. They hold the ability to harmonize all within a soul's personal experience so all souls can integrate all of their experiences. Their frequency brings integration to one's personality and just through being in their presence with an open-heart connection to them, they are able to offer all beings integration of all experiences, bringing peace and tranquility to the personality.

We are the Rakuna children and we share that our spiritual connection brings a transformation to all soul's deepest personality fears. We have come to Earth to help all souls integrate their personal experiences and transform their personal fears and raise their consciousness. We are able to lift these personal fears through the codes we hold in our heart and as we do this, the codes of grace we carry for all beings dissolve the deep fears that affect the personality. Our greatest dreaming is for humanity to personally experience God through the expression of their God Presence in their lives. Our one request with assisting us to offer our gifts in relation to this, is to receive encouragement and support for our dream for humanity and not to be held back through disbelief that humanity cannot experience God or the Divine inside themselves as a personal experience.

As all new children of the Sixth Wave surround you now and begin to bless you with their frequency and gifts, they share that their heart wish is for you to recognize them when you encounter children in your life and when you are aware there is a Sixth Wave child with you, to smile and talk to them inside your mind. They ask you to let them know that you recognize them as a Sixth Wave Child.

The Seventh Wave of the New Children

Qala Sri'ama and the Divine Mother, Sananda and Mary

Blessings from the Divine Wisdom Teachers of Ascension,

We come to you as Mary, The Divine Mother and Sananda, to share our message of love with you about the birthing of the new children of Earth and the very special energies they carry for you. They are here to awaken you and enlighten your soul beloveds, and assist you to know you are love, and that the truth of this love is able to shine as a brilliant, radiant light within you. They are here to show you the path that you may have forgotten, that is your heart path, and bring it to you in celebration of your humanity here on Earth. Dance in the heart of these new children beloveds, for they each bring a high frequency to you. This 7th Wave carries the message of your original Christ heart, your connection to the oneness, your unity consciousness and your connection to all beings. It is the web of life that they understand and live in connection to within each breath, and all in their life is directed through this sacred breath. They will create you to remember that your soul has a purpose and this purpose is not just to do all the things you have never done, but it is to do all that you wish to experience with a very new energy, with unconditional love. They will come to you and ask you to do all that you do differently, beloveds, for their central truth is that you are one with them and there is no separation. May the blessings fall upon you and all you are connected to in life physically, and may these blessings guide your soul to a path of love and oneness in this life. As you meet each soul pod of the 7th wave of the new children, receive their blessing as they come to you. If you are blessed to have one of these children in your environment, take note of their qualities so you can understand their energy, their intention or their actions more deeply. Remember that what may be important to them, may not be important to you, but if you receive their blessings you will be awakened to a new perception of life and you may choose, through your open heart, to then appreciate what means so much to them. The Children of Oneness care deeply about the experience of unity and offer their service to all beings with the heart intention of always bringing experiences that bring the divine union of souls.

If you are so blessed to have children, or to work or be in connection to some of the new children (0 to 22 years old), you are touched by the divine frequency they carry as souls. This message and the previous 6 articles that have been written about the 77 pods or soul families of new children, is a gift from the heart of God so that all parents, teachers and carers of the new children may be able to recognize the gifts and needs of each child they connect to through their hearts. Know beloveds, that if you wish to receive the gifts from your children, you must have an open heart to them and be able to open your own heart as a child of God. As you recognize how to free your own child nature, you will come closer to the truth and joy that the children have for all on Earth, and be able to truly receive the gifts that each child brings to Earth. Imagine a society built through the expression of a soul's gifts and you will see the highest potential of your society, beloveds. These children are the future of your society, so you are asked to teach them through your open heart and your wisdom, and not through the wounds of your own child nature. We ask each of you to address that which you may carry as wounds from your childhood and forgive this, so the freedom of your relationships can grow with the new children.

Beloved hearts, as mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters of light, we are calling to you to recognize these children's gifts and to feed each of their souls with what they may need, energetically and practically, so they may walk forward and develop their gifts of light. Each one of you has been given these children by God, to not only support and care for, or guide, but to also assist you to develop your love and light. They carry the energy you will need to receive, to be opened on a heart level to the next level of your being. To grow with these children is the greatest gift they can give you, so we ask you to give them all they truly need as children. Place this before your other priorities and know that it will feed your children more than any physical belonging that you can work for and that brings you the money to buy it. Remember beloveds, that which they need from you for their growth as a soul, you are unable to buy. Know that the children God has brought to you, are the children you have the special energy and gifts to care for, for as long as you recognize your own gifts, you will be able to give all children the love they need to open their gifts. Our special blessing to you is the ability to connect to them, and to know them. You may do this by asking them, when looking into their eyes with an open heart of love, what wave they come from (1 to 7 waves) and which of the rays of the wave they belong to (1 to 11 pods). Once you have received the two numbers, know beloved that you may receive the readings about this pod from the wave articles that are a gift of love. Just look into their eyes and hold a deep connection to them and ask the two questions gently with love, and these ones will be able to tell you from their open hearts, beloveds. Another way is to use your guidance or a pendulum if you need a tool for this. We bless you beloveds and ask you to be the Guardians of these Children with love.

The 7th Wave are the Christ Children of Oneness

Beloved hearts, the 7th Wave of the New Children are the last wave of children to be shared with you, completing the introduction of the 77 pods to you. If you have not received the understandings of all the other six waves or 66 pods, you may connect to all previous issues of the Sedona magazine or the website www.g-a-i-a.com to receive these. This 7th wave of 11 soul family pods all share three common energetic experiences with each other. The first is that they are all unifiers, and this creates them to want to create unity amongst all people and creatures through all of their experiences in life. They hold grief deeply as souls when unity is not present within the environment they live in, and they are often highly sensitive to new environments if they are lacking in unity consciousness. Therefore, if people in their environments are not working together or living together in harmony, it affects the consciousness of these children deeply, and they are often only able to experience peace through creating something that causes all beings to unite and work together for the highest good of each other. The second most common and unusual energy that each of these children hold, is the power of synergy where experiences take place through synergy. These children are very creative and their creative energies are very advanced, and synergy is created by them merely through their thinking and their thoughts becoming a reality very quickly after this. This is a psychic gift yet is not a psychic gift of communication, but is a gift of creation through synergy. Unusual and beautiful experiences usually manifest around these children if they have open hearts and think of new and beautiful things in their contemplations.

The third common energy or gift they share is that they have the ability to temper their emotions. They all share a happy temperament naturally, unless their environment is non-peaceful and all beings are not united in their environment, and then they may display energies that will bring beings together to unite. Sometimes this is expressed as tears to bring unity to all beings through their compassionate heart, and at other times if they are not expressing their natural happiness, they may be receiving the group's energy of unrest and transmitting this to clear it. As these children are unifiers, they do not place beings through labelling them or behind walls. They feel the oneness with all beings and sometimes this oneness is the expression of the unexpressed feelings of those around them. In ancient times this gift was called empathy, yet these children are empathic; they are naturally of a happy temperament unless the greater energy of the group of people or creatures in their environment are unhappy. These 11 pods of the 7th Wave of the New Children carry the codes of the oneness for all beings on Earth. They are here to master their environments and change these to a higher vibrational energy so that they may express their unconditional love to all beings – which is their soul purpose in this incarnation. Due to their deep connection to the oneness, they also do not focus on their individual nature as they think in the "we" consciousness or group consciousness about all in life instead of thinking in "me" consciousness about their individuality.

The Chiron Children

"We are here to offer the love of God to all beings by assisting them to accept themselves as divine and in the perfection of God's love. It is all beings' perfection that we see and know to be our truth. Our message is that all beings are divine and all carry the love of God, and if they share it with all they meet, they will live a life of shining the light to all they meet. We choose this path and it is our natural heart connection that offers love unconditionally to all beings. It is the energy of unconditional love that allows us to see the perfection in all beings. We accept all beings as they are and this is our gift in life. We ask that we just be accepted as we are and that others also see our perfection. We are here for this experience and the experience of uniting all beings to accept and recognize the perfection in each other. Our difficulty comes when we are given too many possibilities, for we know no one way and cannot choose easily, for we are able to see the perfection in all paths and possibilities. We ask for assistance with our choices as this is difficult for us and we sometimes struggle when we are offered individual choices. We often choose that which suits all beings for we have difficulty thinking about our individuality and choosing something just for ourselves."

The Chiron Children are deeply connected to the Christ realms through the trees of the Earth, and their connection to the trees provides them great nurturance in times of difficulty. Giving any Chiron child a deep connection to trees as they grow older, is the highest possible gift that they can receive as it assists the energy of their heart to grow larger. Through their connection to the trees, they are able to ground easily and release any difficulties they may have of life in an individual body. The Chiron Children, like many of the children of oneness, have not known lifetimes as individuals before. They have incarnated as a group consciousness energy spirit like the angels, yet never incarnated within humanity before. So for many of them, this is their first life and it is difficult as the group consciousness within society is not yet functioning in a clear state of group consciousness. May you be blessed with their love as they offer you an image of the perfection of your soul, exactly as you are, and they call to you to know that all Chiron children see your perfection, and they invite you to accept yourself exactly as you are.

The Golden Crystal Children

“We are from the Great Central Sun and beyond, and have come to Earth to bring joy through the crystalline heart and intelligence of all beings. We have chosen our parents for their interest in technology, science and their ability to also serve all beings with love. We are here to support all beings we meet to receive their deeper connection to the golden light and love held in the Christ grids. Together, with many ancient beings here on Earth, we are keepers of the Christ grid and we are always aware of the energies traveling through the Christ grids. For this reason, we are susceptible to the tall tales of all beings as we are often unable to distinguish a beings’ fantasy from their reality. If it is their heart dreaming and they would like this, we are aware that their fantasies could become their reality. As others speak to us, we are unable to filter the information as others do, as our Christ consciousness creates the hemispheres of our brains to emerge. Therefore we do not function in society in the same way. We are here as doorkeepers to show other children the way home to the open heart, and how to merge and connect to the Christ grids if they lose their way. We are spiritual guides of the soul and do not have the ability, as yet, to guide ourselves physically. We are here to learn about the physical path in life and how to create this whilst carrying an extraordinary gift of spiritual guidance for all souls in life. We ask for assistance with the physical aspects of life as we do this.”

As guides for others, the Golden Crystal Children deeply carry three gifts in their hearts. The first is the gift of surrender and peace. The second is their ability to know the Christ heart of all beings and know how to connect a being to the Christ grids so they may receive their Christ consciousness again and be able to be guided by their spirit again. The third is their ability as telepaths in the spirit world. This last gift is the gift they use to receive guidance to take other souls on journeys into the spirit world. They are often able to guide a soul to meet with their spirit again and it is their first joy to create this so as to reignite the fibers of joy in a soul’s heart again. Through this gift, these children are able to support many to receive their gifts as souls again and to awaken their heart dreams again. They carry such wisdom in regards to their spirit world, that many other children are naturally drawn to them for counsel if they are having difficulty in their lives.

The Peach Children

We are the Peach Children who carry the peach ray for all beings, to bring peace to the minds of all souls, and a radiant compassion to the hearts of all beings. We are deeply connected to the path of the bodhisattva on Earth and do not understand why souls choose the path of destruction or desire when they could choose the path of freedom, peace and love as an alternative. We are here to learn about this and understand through compassion, all beings that choose this path of destruction or desire. Our wisdom comes from our hearts and the lives we have previously served as bodhisattvas. We come from the stars to birth on Earth, to bring the new frequency of a deeper, compassionate nature to all beings, and to gift the codes we carry for the strengthening of compassion, inner peace, and a reconnection to the deeper levels of peace found through connecting deep within, to one’s inner nature as a Buddha of compassion and peace. As children, we are often found sitting very still in silence and we wish to share that we are in meditation with the peace found on a deep level that is beyond all the business and confusions, questions, answers and mental communication. Due to this, we have difficulty being present with long hours of study unless it allows us to meditate, so we are often found daydreaming and meditating during our classes. We ask that our parents and teachers understand our need to meditate as it is our essence, and is what we are here to teach others to integrate through their development of compassion and inner peace.

The Peach Children are in service to all beings and are guided by their inner self deeply in life. They often do not fit into family life or school life if their mediation and quiet time is not accepted, recognized, honored and encouraged in life. If this is accepted and encouraged, they excel at all they place their energy into, although they are unable to interact in non peaceful activities such as battle or arguments, as it moves against their very peaceful and compassionate nature. They tend to avoid any communities or groups that are not at peace, or able to find peace through their heart connection, and often are found alone, living without community due to this. If these children were recognized and valued for their gift, they would become the peacekeepers and mediators of the community and respected for their deep inner connection and their incredible awareness of what creates peace through compassion. The children ask for their heart dreaming to be recognized by their parents, grandparents and carers so they may offer their gifts to all beings and support the natural energies of peace and compassion to develop in many being's lives.

The Magenta Crystal Children

"We are from the other side of the Pleiades and beyond, and we bring the magenta crystal heart to all beings who have lost their innocence and faith in relation to creating their reality. We bring the frequency of faith to all being's abilities to create if we are supported to speak our truth and share our open heart connection with them. Often we are over-protected by our parents for we have chosen parents that do not hold faith in their ability to create, so that we may assist them. We carry the medicine for them to bring back their faith in their creative selves, yet if we are over-protected, we lose our connection to our gifts and then lose connection to ourselves. We ask our parents to be truthful with us and for them not to smother us as it creates fear around us. Our gift is joyful, playful and so easy to receive if all beings are ready again to believe in themselves. It is through all beings holding a belief in themselves again that they have the faith to create their lives with flow, joy, grace and ease. We ask that we be supported to share our faith and true knowing of the many possibilities that all beings are able to create. It is this that fulfils our hearts as we encourage others to know they can have the freedom to create their dreamings from their hearts, and the only key they need, is to believe."

The Magenta Crystal Children are calling for all beings to meet a deeper side of their hearts, where the heart is able to extend out to all beings on the Earth in compassion and love, sharing their love equally with all beings. They hold the gift for humanity to remember that we are one with each other and through this, each one of us is a petal in the larger heart of all beings. It is through this vision that the Magenta Crystal Children guide their lives, unless they are overprotected and fear is placed upon them. They are in deep need presently for their parents to recognize them and choose to allow them the freedom to give from their hearts freely to others, as it is this that fulfils their soul more deeply than any other activity. They also hold a deep wish to have a period of their life in stillness and they have the patience to know that this may not come into fruition until they are truly accepted and functioning in the world as who they are truly. They ask for assistance with this so their place in the world may shine for them, as many of them could become lost without the guiding hand of love supporting them.

The Blue Celestial Children

“We are the Blue Celestial Children and we carry the deep oneness for all beings’ minds and bodies. We are here on Earth as we carry specific medicine to assist humanity’s minds and bodies to find balance and freedom and oneness in life, and to release old curses, pains or sufferings that they may hold from other lives. We come from the celestial realms and bring truth with us to assist humanity to free themselves of any limitations, false beliefs, old perceptions and agreements that they may have created in other lives or dimensions. We carry the gift of full awareness of divine truth and are able to support a being to release their personal truths to find a higher truth that serves all beings. We also carry a joyful and playful outlook on truth in life, and are not able to be serious about this although we carry great connection to it for others, as guides in life. We understand that all in life is able to transform and change easily, and that no matter what is occurring, it is all just a momentary experience that does not reflect upon the divinity and oneness of all souls, yet offers all a personal experience of either joy or pain in accordance to the beliefs systems or personal truths each soul gives energy to. We are here to guide all beings to find their path to expressing their lives through truth so they may create their experiences to be fulfilling, and birth their joy again. Our purpose is simple as we are here to reflect the truth back to all beings until they see it for themselves. We often do this through play and through light communication, over and over again, until the being we are reflecting receives their divine truth and is able to let go of their old truths that do not serve them.

The Blue Celestial Children have an immense connection of awareness that is very natural to them and does not need to be created by them in life as it flows through their consciousness and is their essence of connection to the oneness in life. This awareness is a large sphere of energy that surrounds them and from this large sphere of divine energy, they are able to know the truth of all situations, even before others contemplate or begin to have questions. These children are here to teach others in the future, from this higher awareness, and they need the support specifically from their mothers to allow them to speak their truth even if it is not proven and known by others. Their awareness allows them to know that which is unable to be seen and known by others. Their knowing comes direct from the spirit world or from blue light that is one of the colours that holds divine truth as energy and consciousness. As they offer this higher awareness, it is the blue light that fills others who are willing to receive this from them, recognising them as truth keepers. These children need to have their gifts recognised and have permission to speak these truths freely even if others do not have this awareness.

The White Rose Children

“We are sacred hearts who hold the love for all beings and hold each one as a petal within our own hearts. The white rose is a light of the most delicate form and we carry this delicacy of love within our hearts for all beings. It is our connection to the most delicate part of another being that is our gift. We hold the awareness of knowing how to support a being in their most delicate state with their transformation and alchemical purification. We are alchemists yet we hold the oneness and a clear understanding of the intimate self of a being. It is the most intimate parts of self that we are here to support to open these hearts to all that is, to consciously embrace the oneness of love again. We are deeply grateful for the journey with all souls for allowing their connection to us to the most intimate and delicate part of their soul nature. It has been a gift, and each time we meet new souls, we are gifted with a new connection that is so precious to us for it is through our connection to the delicate aspects of another, that we are able to know ourselves as God knows us. We are able to share our gifts and truly love in an unbounded form and know ourselves through this experience. We thank all beings and their intimate and delicate selves for this. "

The White Rose Children carry the ability to attune to all beings in a non-confrontational manner, where their gifts of attunement to the intimate self are honoured and respected by all others. They are able to raise the vibration of all beings through their sacred energy, for the divine frequency of the white rose is able to lift deep fears from a soul's heart. When they focus on the unified field, that is part of their mastery, all dissolves within the field of their environment, and all beings in the presence of these children then experience a lifting of their vibration instantly. Their gifts are not often seen by others, and due to their group conscious or unity consciousness nature, unless they are aware of others with this gift, they tend to not use this gift. Often instead of this, they find themselves expressing for other people who cannot accept their intimacy with love, and sometimes this is a painful expression. This does not support them to be free, yet it does free the pain of others who are connected to them that are unable to receive conscious connection to their most intimate heart. If the group consciousness of beings around them does not offer a place for their gifts, they are unable to express their gifts clearly and they often take on the wounds of intimacy of others to assist them. When these children birth to Earth, they attune to the largest group of souls on Earth to try to merge with them, and often merge with humanity's collective consciousness which presently holds fears of intimacy. Some of the children experience negative behaviours as they pick up on the group-consciousness behaviours. The White Rose children need those around them to accept their gift of intimacy. The White Rose children do not judge the most intimate parts of all souls, but have the gift of unconditional love and acceptance of each one of them. These children also need to be connected to the angels, otherwise they tend to merge with the populus of humanity and they tend to become insecure in the world and are unable to attune easily to the unified field of love. If they are connected to the angels of Earth, they will merge with them and find peace and great awakenings to their gifts of love in the world.

The Alpha Centauri Children

"We are the Alpha Centauri Children and we are here to support all souls to acknowledge their divine heart as a doorway to their divine joy and freedom. We are a group consciousness that does not know our individual power as yet, so we often feel powerless unless we are working in group consciousness. We carry the gifts of the Star Lily that offers freedom to all beings who have not yet acknowledged and awakened to the power of their heart. We come to Earth as so many on Earth are unaware of the power of their own heart to create their own freedom in life and to manifest their joy in life. We carry the love frequency for all who have not realized this, and carry understandings and the energy to support all who have not yet awakened to their heart dreaming, and for those who have closed their heart and live only in their minds at this time. We come to support all who have no conscious connection to their heart, and to teach them that it is possible for them to create something that fills them with love and to live a life based on love. We are awakeners and have the ability to support a soul that has closed their heart to their own dreaming, to be able to acknowledge the power of their heart and their ability to create a loving reality and life.”

The Alpha Centauri Children are also known as the Lily Star Children. They carry great ability to synchronise with other souls so they can merge with any other soul no matter what state of consciousness a soul is emanating. They can attune to all souls immediately and understand all souls without them having to express their feelings and thoughts to them. They are empathic and also often telepathic, yet these gifts are used as one gift to support their energy to merge and synchronise with another soul while they are with them. Each Lily Star child is directly birthed from Alpha Centauri (a star in the heavens), to the Earth, and their frequency of light is a similar vibration to the star, Alpha Centauri. These children are immediately aligned to their highest dreaming by looking at the star Alpha Centauri in the night sky. It immediately lifts their consciousness to their natural vibration. Often these children have difficulty as the vibration of their energy body is affected by the solar flares that affect the earth, and these can create headaches for these children if they are not in connection to the stars consciously. Taking star children camping under the night sky balances their energy so the solar flares and the possible increases in flare activity do not affect them negatively.

The Hathor Children

“We are the Hathor Children and we are deeply connected to Venus and the group heart of all beings. It is the interconnected nature of humanity we are here to support, and the immense rays of gratitude that we are here to express. We live in gratitude and reverence to all beings. Our hearts are eternally grateful for our ability to give freely in service to all beings. We are here to give everything away and as we do this, we are aware that God will bring to us, that which is for us. We carry no sense of need for our personal selves and when others talk of having something for ourselves, we cannot relate to this and find it difficult to have relationships with all beings because of this. So many relationships are based on exchanging things rather than on the creation of love. We are often confused by humanity’s ways of relationship and we are here to offer a new form of relationship based only on the creation and generation of love. In this relationship, we are aware that the only path as a generator and creator of love is the path of giving all through the open heart and releasing all fear of holding on to anything for self. Due to this, we carry the great heart wish to be of service to all, and find that we are guided to offer all beings, the awareness that they will receive their true needs for their happiness and heart fulfillment through giving freely with their greatest power of love.

The Hathor Children are sensitive to the needs of others before their own needs, and carry the divine realization that when they give to others that which they need, their own needs are taken care of by God/dess. These children have large hearts and when they speak, they speak of the needs of other beings, for God shows them that which is truly needed by others. These children are deeply connected to the angelic heart of all beings and they are able to sense the presence of each soul and the gifts of each soul. They are aware that if a soul receives what it truly needs, the soul will be able to open its gifts and share them with all others in their life. They often give away all that they own to those that may benefit from them as they each carry the charitable heart of God within them. These children are unable to hold onto anything for themselves unless it is a part of what they truly need. Therefore, they often have difficulty receiving things that are not needed by them and are unable to appreciate them as others do. They are unable to appreciate material goods if they do not need them and they often see them as worthless unless they are connected to supporting a soul to receive their true needs. These children are deeply creative and also have the ability to work with many different projects at once and co-ordinate these. They are not able to focus on the material nature of a project but instead, hold the gift of being able to oversoul the creative process.

The White Lily Children

“We are the White Lily children and we live in a space that is very quiet and filled with the angelic feelings of one’s God self. We are fulfilled by these feelings yet are often overwhelmed due to these feelings being so strong. We would like to be able to express this angelic heart through some form of creation such as music or art. We are teachers for the soul’s heart to be able to allow new expressions of itself to be discovered through new expressions of the heart. Music and art are the two forms that we ask to be offered to us to allow us to truly share our gifts of the angelic heart with all beings freely. We carry a soft energy that is often downtrodden in the world due to the rush of creating goods and services that are based on a harsher frequency than we carry in the world. We often become self-obsessive if we do not find our own creation path with the soft energy we carry for all being’s creative hearts. It is the creative feminine heart that we are here to open. The playful, soft feminine heart of love that creates just for love and for no other reason than to share the frequency of love through creation, is the heart we are here to open. We are often misunderstood by our parents who see us as being too soft for the world, and many of our parents try to harden us for the big world. We ask not to be hardened, but instead to be cushioned with love so our gifts or the creative feminine heart can open within us. The music and art we create when our gifts are open, fill all beings with love.”

The White Lily Children are so considerate to other souls that many in the world see them as too considerate. They hold compassion as their mastery and see all in life through the eyes of compassion. This compassion is found through their angelic heart and when a soul has difficulty expressing the love from their heart, these children are aware of how to support a soul to open their feminine soft heart through creativity. This empowers all souls to experience love and feel supported to be empowered through their creativity. This form of creativity is not goal orientated, it is orientated only towards the freedom of the expression of love by a soul. All of these children are aware of the love within other souls and of the most expressive avenue for a soul’s love to be discovered softly in the world. These children are guides for the expression of loving energies that come from the angelic world of light, expressions that open all being’s hearts and release all fears gently, so the soul may express the softest aspect of themselves creatively in their lives. If these children are given softness, they will open their gifts and offer their greatest gift back to all beings, which is the ability to support all beings to walk softly in the world, creating with love, without affecting any other soul to experience difficulty.

The Lyrans Children

“We are the Lyrans Children who come to Earth to be present with all souls. We are here to support all souls to unify with their Divine Presence, and with the many fragments of themselves that they may have rejected or discarded in other lives, or closed down to in this life. We speak of the fragments of self as the gifts that a soul may have closed down to in this life or other lives, due to a loss of believing in oneself. We are here to support God's promise, that all who ask for grace will receive it, and the grace that we bring to all souls is to assist the unification of all fragments of personality, or one's soul, that may have been rejected through this, or any other life. We carry this ability through the frequency we carry for all beings. It is a frequency that unifies all that has felt separated, hidden or repressed by a being. We are here to lift the repressions of the past into the light, so all gifts can reactivate into the now moment of life. We bring stardust and happiness to all beings who may have felt that they lost their gifts, and for those that wish to retrieve gifts again in this life. We ask only to be supported to love all beings equally, for often when we unify the energies for others, through receiving these energies ourselves, our love vibration sometimes becomes more focused on these beings only, and this creates us to love some beings more than others in this world. With our gifts, we wish to express unconditional love to all beings, so we ask for assistance with this and ask to be supported to love all beings equally.

The Lyran Children are divine connectors and unifiers. They are so happy, yet at times are affected by unhappy souls. Their learning is to be happy, regardless of whether all others with them are happy. It is their happiness that unifies all soul fragments which are the memories of souls. Every Lyran child carries the gift of happiness and also the gift to unify all soul fragments or soul memories with their energy. Yet when these children focus only on their own happiness, they forget to unify all through their heart, and they become fragmented by all the soul fragments found in their environments. When these children consider the happiness of all beings as their first focus, they open their hearts to unify all fragments and receive a greater level of happiness than they could experience individually. When a Lyran child focuses only on their own self, they become too selfless, which causes them to act with selfishness. This is against their own true nature and it is this that creates them to feel separate and more fragmented within themselves. All Lyran Children need to be supported to serve all beings' happiness and to make decisions based on the good of all beings firstly, rather than on themselves, otherwise they embody the fragments of their environments as they are not unifying through their open heart freely.

The Orion Children

"We are the Orion Children and we are often seen as dark or bad due to all beings' memories of Orion. We carry the power to affect all beings to powerfully awaken the very core of their heart to flow with the light of God, and due to this, we are at times fearful of our power and reject this power unless those around us are able to recognize our light. We are often seen as the bad ones or the naughty ones, as when we reject our true power, we close down our hearts and we feel empty, alone and destructive, rather than one with all and creative. We carry the divine energy of Orion, the light that unites all to love and invites all which is seen as bad or dark, to be recognized as love and light again by all. We are unifiers of the dark and light heart within all, and through our heart, others are able to be supported to accept and love their own inner darkness or unresolved energies, just as deeply as they love their light or joyful nature. We are sensitive to rejection and when others reject us, a part of our heart closes down and we become destructive, and without our united heart we experience the separation of all that is held within our environments, and play out these energies, often destructively, until they have released from us."

The Orion Children need to be understood by their parents and teachers if they are to be assisted and honored as divine children. These children have large hearts and if they close their hearts, they may embody the fears of separation that others hold when they repress their fears. If they are rejected, judged or isolated by their family members or by teachers that they love, they immediately close their hearts down and begin to embody the deepest memories of rejection of all beings in their environment. It is this that creates their behavior to often be very destructive. These children are here to remember that even if they have a powerful light frequency, they are pure love and are here to learn to use it without being destructive. To receive this learning, they need to be embraced with love and non-judgment and clearly educated that they are loved, and that their negative behaviors that often overtake them, are due to a deep resentment of being rejected in ancient times, or from the present fears that come from memories of living another life of not being fully loved. Once they overcome these fears, they are able to open their gifts to unify all beings' hearts and assist souls to not feel afraid of embracing and healing the darkest memories or pain in their hearts.
